Said joins 10,000 club

Elaine Said has crossed the 10,000 masterpoint milestone. Said, who has more than 100 regional victories in her career, is a bridge instructor at the Vanderbilt Bridge Club in Nashville TN.

"I work with my students eight or nine times per week," said Said.

Despite a lengthy list of bridge accomplishments, Said's favorite personal honor was being named to the ACBL Goodwill Committee.

"Making people happy is more important to me than any of my bridge titles," she said.

Silver Ribbon champs: Godefrin-Schulte

With the aid of a huge carryover from the qualifying round, Joe Godefrin and Ed Schulte stayed ahead of the field throughout the final round to win the Silver Ribbon Pairs.

This is the first NABC win for the duo, although they also have a world title to their credit: the 2001 World Senior Cup in Paris.

The winners scored 62.91% in the afternoon session and 54.77% in the evening session to post a final tally of 2646.27, which included a carryover of more than 290 for their dominating performance in Sunday's two-session qualifier.

In second, less than a board behind with 2518.20, were G Gard Hays and Jerry Premo. Narrowly behind in third were Nancy Popkin and Donald Stack with 2514.31.

Godefrin, of Sarasota FL, and Schulte, of Tampa, have several second-place finishes in national championships, including the 2003 IMP Pairs in Long Beach.

One hundred fifty-six pairs played in yesterday's two-session final.

They won the Silver Ribbon Pairs: Ed Schulte and Joseph Godefrin.

Top seeds roll in Vanderbilt

In second-round Vanderbilt action, the top-ranked teams experienced little difficulty in advancing to today's round of 32. There were a few upsets, however. The highest-seeded team to exit yesterday was the #13 squad captained by Mark Gordon. They were defeated by the four-man team led by Marc Zwerling 171-135. Also, the #19 seed, Zolotow, lost to the #46 seed, Brody, 177-145.

Play continues today on the Mezzanine Level.

Goodwill highlights: CPR, a tie and a gift

Aileen Osofsky, Goodwill Committee chairman, had some interesting goodwill stories to tell yesterday at the Goodwill Committee reception.

A man suffered a heart attack at the table a few days ago, and Carol Huston gave him CPR to keep him alive until professional help arrived. She reported that he is doing well and may even be back to the tournament in time to play a few sessions. She also emphasized how important it is for everyone to know how to give CPR because the first few minutes after an attack are critical.

The man Carol Huston and Aileen Osofsky

who suffered the attack was playing in the final of one of the bracketed knockouts. His teammates were looking for someone to sub for him, but they weren't having much luck. But MacKenzie Myers, captain of the opposing team, told the short-handed team that his group didn't want to win because of a forfeit or because of playing against a weakened team. He said his team was willing to call it a tie if they wished and the ACBL agreed. So, as a result of this act of goodwill, the match ended in a tie.

Donna Compton had an interesting story to tell. She was talking to some friends at the craps table, and the conversation turned to bridge in schools. Her friends were enthusiastic about the

The Bridgetoday.com Panel Show discusses the hot topic of Bridge and Marriage. (No, really, this will be fun!) Join emcee Matthew Granovetter and panelists Donna and Chris Compton, Sheri Winestock and Fred Gitelman, Ralph and Martha Katz, Yvonne and Eddie Kantar, and Jan and Chip Martel for a very serious look (not!) into the terrible ordeals of married bridge players, how to cope, and how to overcome the enormous pres-

ures of bathroom bridge discussions, bedroom disagreements in the auction and those mornings after the 45% games. Questions from the audience welcome. Crystal Ballroom.

The show starts with the brief movie, "The Bridge Wives," the 1930s story of four wives who form a women's bridge team and how their frustrated husbands must cope with the household duties.

They meet at last

George Rosenkranz and Malcolm Brachman have known each other for more than 45 years, and they have competed against each other countless times. But they had never played together in a pair event and they had never been on the same team.

That finally changed when they signed up as teammates in the first of the bracketed knockouts. It was a successful amalgamation – their team won the event.

It's unlikely that any partnership with more combined years will win an event here. Between them Rosenkranz and Brachman count more than 160 years.

Say Cheese

At this and future North American Championships, ACBL will be monitoring NABC+ events with visible, real-time cameras. The images will be recorded and will be available for later official inspection and review.

By general monitoring of the session and participants' behavior, ACBL has another source of information that may be useful in determining facts and settling issues arising from some types of ethical and behavioral complaints or actions.

This procedure is intended to assure everyone that the playing field is level and that misbehavior will not be tolerated.

Goodwill message

How pleasant it is to hear a player call, "Director, please" – instead of an anguished "DIRECTOR!"

Why not extend that courtesy to our caddies? Don't you think "Caddy, please" has a rather nice sound?

Remember that Reno is the first NABC for some of our players – and it's also the first NABC for many of our caddies.

Aileen Osofsky, Chairman
National Goodwill
Committee

Attendees at Sunday's ACBL Education Workshop included ACBL's Director of Education Julie Greenberg, Dick Ellis of Kokomo IN, ACBL's Education Field Coordinator Donna Compton, Leslie Pettie of Edmonton AB, and Den Motoyoshi of Spokane WA. More than two dozen members gathered to hear ideas about membership recruitment and retention.

Pity poor East

The defenders didn't do anything terribly wrong on this deal from the second final session of the Silidor Open Pairs. They could have done better, but John Stiefel found the route to a fine score when the defense slipped a bit.

♠ A 5	♠ 8 4
♥ K J 10 7	♥ A 5 2
♦ A Q 6 4	♦ K 10 9 8
♣ J 4 3	♣ K 10 6 2

- All Pass
 (1) Weak hand – asks partner to bid 3♣
 (2) Forced
 (3) 0-7 high card points

If West had led his singleton diamond, the defense might have fared better, but certainly the ♠K is more than reasonable. After some thought, Stiefel decided to win – he didn't want a switch to diamonds. He finessed the ♣Q successfully and went after trumps. He eyed West's ♥8 with suspicion as he played the 10 from dummy and East ducked smoothly.

East is a good player, so Stiefel feared that West's 8 might have been singleton. If that was the case, East would win the next trump trick with the queen, cash the ace and lead a fourth heart. Now declarer would have an extra loser in spades. So Stiefel decided to start on diamonds. He led low from dummy and won with his jack when East played low. When he led another diamond, West ruffed in with the queen and cashed the ♠Q. Then came the ♠J, ruffed in dummy with the king and overruffed by East.

East could have done better at this point by switching to a club – it would have broken up the ensuing end position. But he actually led his last trump. Stiefel carefully won this with the 10 and then led the ♥7 to his 9.

This was the four-card ending:

♥ —	♥ —
♦ A Q	♦ K 10
♣ J 4	♣ K 10
♠ 10 9 7	♠ —
♦ —	♦ K 10
♣ 9	♣ K 10
♥ 6	♥ —

Stiefel led his last trump – the 6 – and pitched dummy's ♦Q. He still had the ♠A and two clubs in his hand and the ♣A and the jack-small in clubs. And East had to discard. It was the perfect criss-cross squeeze. If East threw a diamond, Stiefel would cash the ♦A and cross to dummy with the ♣A for another diamond trick. If East ditched a club, Stiefel would cross to the ♣A, get back to his hand with the ♦A and cash his good club.

Bizarre Triple Squeeze

by Richard Pavlicek

This deal from the first round of the Vanderbilt contained an unusual ending that I don't recall seeing before.

♠ A J 10 5	♠ 9 8 3 2
♥ Q J	♥ A 9 4 2
♦ 9 6	♦ A K 10 2
♣ K J 9 7 3	♣ 6

West	North	East	South
1♥	1♣	Dbl	Rdbl
Pass	3♣	Pass	3NT

All Pass
 The opening lead was the ♠6.
 As East, I doubled the 1♣ opening for takeout, and my son Rich rescued to 1♥ after the redouble. Eventually, Brian Senior of England became declarer in 3NT.

It looks like nine easy tricks with the ♦A K onside, and it would be after a red-suit lead, but Rich found the almost-killing spade lead, won by South's king. The ♣A Q were cashed to discover the bad news (I pitched a spade), then South led a heart to develop his ninth trick. Suppose I win the ♥A and return a spade, won in dummy. If declarer leads another heart, West takes the king and leads a diamond to my ace-king, then a third spade severs declarer's communication. Whichever hand he wins in is left with a loser.

But wait! If declarer cashes one top club in dummy (he can't cash both because West still has the ♥K), I am caught in a bizarre triple squeeze, reminiscent of the late Geza Ottlik.

♠ A J	♠ 9
♥ Q	♥ 9 4 2
♦ 9 6	♦ A K 10 2
♣ K J 9	♣ —
♠ —	♠ Q
♥ K 7	♥ 10 8 5
♦ J 8 3	♦ Q 7 5 4
♣ 10 8 5	♣ —

The ♣K is played from dummy. If I pitch my spade, I can't lead a spade to break declarer's communication. So I must let go of my long card in a red suit, and declarer pitches from the opposite red suit. Next a heart is led to the king, and declarer can cope with any defense. If we cash both diamonds and lead a third spade, his hand is high thanks to the squeeze.

Alas, we didn't put declarer to the test — we tried to run diamonds after winning the heart. Sorry, Brian, for depriving you of the opportunity for the rare squeeze, but I'm sure you would have gotten it right anyway.

BPT Prize Money Bridge events

BPT Prize Money Bridge will sponsor two exciting events in Reno. On Wednesday, March 24, BPT Prize Money Bridge will sponsor the regionally rated two-session Stratified Open Pairs at 1 and 7:30 p.m.

In addition to the usual masterpoint awards, the top three pairs in each strata (A, B and C) will each get a slice of the $2400 in ACBL Bridge Bucks presented by BPT Prize Money Bridge.

On Friday, March 26, at 1 p.m., BPT Prize Money Bridge will stage the $14,000 Reno Open IV. An individual contest (each participant plays with a different partner/opponent each board), this three-session event will continue at 7:30 p.m., with the final beginning Saturday, March 27, at 9 a.m. The entry fee at the door is $100 and covers all three sessions.

The format consists of a two-session qualifying with the top 32 players qualifying for the final. There is prize money for the top three finishers in each session of the qualifying, including the top two overall, and to all finalists. Full payout of prize money depends on there being 50 tables in the Open. There is a consolation for all non-qualifiers.

Additionally, there will be a Stratified and 299er game that begin Friday, March 26, at 7 p.m. Up to $400 can be won by a first-place finish in the Stratified and up to $200 can be won in the 299er. Both events have a one-session qualifier with the top 32 players reaching the final on Saturday, March 27, at 9 a. m. Non-qualifiers may play in the consolation. The entry fee is $30 for the Stratified and $20 for the 299er division.

This will be an ACBL-sanctioned contest with masterpoint awards. All participants must play the ACBL Yellow Card as modified by BPT Prize Money Bridge (available online at www.bridgepro-tour.com or at the BPT Prize Money booth near the book seller).

Louise Childs Freed Memorial Game

“There is tougher competition here than I’ve seen at some North American Championships,” said Gary Ullman of the Louise Childs Freed Memorial Game that was held at the Barrington Bridge Club in Los Angeles on March 7. The event raised more than $12,500. The game was one of the most successful charity events in Los Angeles history.

Ullman and his wife Anne topped the strong field of 60 pairs with a 66% game. Arlene Weiner and Peter Benjamin finished second. The field included such top players as Eddie Kantar, Jill Meyers, Beverly Rosenberg, Geoff Hampson, Renee Mancuso, Pam Wittes, Mary Jane Farell and Don Krauss.

The event was hosted by Ellen Anten, Becky Clough, Adrienne Green, Gerri Knilans, Barbara Lesser, Jill Richmond and Diana Schreiber. Peter Knee and Brian Henderson did the directing chores.

Adrienne Green, a close friend of Louise Childs Freed for many years, said, “This event would have made Louise proud. Louise was one of the finest, warmest and generous persons I have ever known.”

How to be caddy-friendly

Bridge caddies help make the game so much nicer, but many players inadvertently make a caddy’s job more difficult than it needs to be. Here are some tips on how to be caddy-friendly:

- In pair games, make your completed score tickets easily accessible. Many caddies prefer to have the score tickets placed in the corner of the table, while others like it left in the center of the table sticking out partially from underneath the table card. Even better is simply to ask your caddy where he or she would like you to place the tickets. In either case, however, it’s much easier for the caddy to pick up the ticket if you turn up a corner. Additionally, it’s helpful to be consistent in where you place the completed tickets.

- In pair games, leave the caddy enough room to walk down the row of tables. Players who sit far back from the table make it difficult for the caddy to negotiate a path through your section.
- In team games, it’s common for players to place boards not currently in play on the floor. However, at the end of the match (especially the final match of the session), please return the boards to the table. Don’t make the caddies stoop over to pick up all the boards.
- Be respectful to the caddies, regardless of their age. “Please” and “thank you” go a long way.

East led the ♣9, which suggested that the ♣K was with West. So instead of finessing he flew with dummy’s ace, played the ♥A and ruffed a heart. He crossed to the ♦A to ruff another heart and then he cashed the top three spades.

Now he exited with the second trump, and in the four-card ending East was on play to concede a ruff and discard or to lead a diamond and let Sadek put up the jack. Either way declarer had his plus 920.

Convention card reminder

Each player is required to have a convention card filled out legibly and on the table throughout a session. Both cards of a partnership must be identical and include the first and last names of each member of the partnership.

If a director determines that neither player has a substantially completed card, the partnership may play only the Standard American Yellow Card and may use only standard carding. This restriction may be lifted only at the beginning of a subsequent round after convention cards have been properly prepared and approved by the director. Further, the partnership will receive a 1/6 board matchpoint penalty for each board played, commencing with the next round and continuing until the restriction is lifted. In IMP team games, penalties shall be at the discretion of the director.

If the director determines the partnership has at least one substantially completed convention card but has not fully complied with ACBL regulations, the director may give warnings or assign such penalties as he deems to be appropriate under the circumstances.

The objective of these warnings and penalties is the encouragement of full compliance with ACBL regulations.

12 teams enter Junior Collegiate tournament

So far 12 teams have entered the eighth annual Junior Collegiate Team Championship that will be played on OKbridge on April 3 and 4. The event is co-sponsored by ACBL, OKbridge and the Fifth Chair Foundation.

The American teams entered are Harvard, Princeton, Georgia Tech, Dartmouth, UCLA and Michigan. The remainder of the field includes two teams from Ankara, Turkey (Middle East Technical University I and Middle East Technical University II); two teams from Istanbul, Turkey (ITC and Bogazici), and two teams from Singapore (NTU and NUS).

Tap into the NAP

By Brent Manley

Arthur Moore can still remember the scene at the Scope Convention Center in Norfolk VA in March of 1979. Going into the final session of the inaugural Grand National Pairs, Bart Bramley approached Moore and his partner, Eric Robinson. "You're in position," said Bramley, a fellow New Englander who was also playing in the event. "Go for it!"

Go for it they did, and the two emerged as the first winners of what now is the North American Pairs. "We weren't leading until the end," Moore recalls.

At the time of their victory, Moore and Robinson lived in the Boston area. Now they are on opposite sides of the continent — Robinson in Scarsdale NY and Moore in Arcadia CA in the Los Angeles area. They haven't played bridge together in more than 20 years.

That does not lessen the exhilaration they both remember from their first major victory — and it all began at the club level.

New and improved

Twenty-five years later, the national event — which has evolved into the NAP with three separate flights — is still a major attraction to grassroots players. Qualifying games for the new, improved NAP are scheduled for your local club in June, July and August this year.

To increase participation in the NAP, the ACBL has reduced sanction fees to encourage clubs to have more games and is allowing clubs to conduct two NAP qualifying games per sanctioned session, per flight. That means more chances to qualify and more opportunities to win masterpoints. Also, in the unit final, any players who qualify may play with any other qualified player in any unit in the district.

First-place district winners in each flight receive three nights' lodging and airfare subsidies to the 2005 Spring NABC in Pittsburgh. Second-place pairs in the districts receive airfare subsidies. The flights are Open, B (up to 2000 masterpoints) and C (non-Life Master with fewer than 500 MPs).

Club-level masterpoints are half red and half black, one-session unit-level games award sectionally rated red points, and district finals award gold points for section tops and overall placement.

Grass roots appeal

Back in 1978, Moore, 27, and Robinson, 22, took their first steps by qualifying at a club in Cambridge MA in District 25. They survived the unit and district finals, and by the time they and 103 other pairs sat down to play in the two-day GNP final in Norfolk, more than 71,000 ACBL members had competed for those coveted spots.

Robinson, then studying government at Harvard University, was somewhat of a bridge prodigy, starting serious play at the age of 11. He had a few regional victories under his belt. "In my high school and college years," Robinson recalls, "I played quite a bit."

Moore, already a practicing attorney, won a national event before he won a regional, although he did have a couple of seconds.

Both players liked the idea of the grassroots format. "It was much more egalitarian," says Moore, now a patent attorney. "It gave us the chance to win a national event — it wasn't like trying to win the Spingold." Ironically, Moore came close to winning the Spingold, making it to the semifinal round at the 1990 Summer NABC in Boston, losing to the eventual winners.

Robinson remembers the excitement of vying for one of District 25's six spots in the GNP final in 1979. "All the top pairs in New England were competing," he says.

In the national final, the star-studded field would have intimidated many players. The finalists included luminaries such as Lou Bluhm, Mark Molson, Boris Baran, Sidney Lazard, Jim Jacoby, Bob Hamman, Charles Coon, Steve Becker, Chip Martel, Lew Stansby and a host of others.

Moore remembers approaching the national final with trepidation. After the first qualifying session, however, they realized they could compete with the stars. "It took a bit of getting over the jitters," he says.

After the second final session, players were milling about and waiting for the scores. Moore recalls thinking that a pair from District 12 had won. When he and Robinson were announced as the winners (by 4 matchpoints on a 25 top), Moore recalls, "We were in heaven."

Robinson says the thrill of winning is still hard to describe. "It was more than masterpoints and glory," he says.

Neither Moore nor Robinson plays a lot these days. Both are busy with their careers. After he graduated from Harvard, Robinson earned an MBA and law degree from Yale University, and he now works for a New York City law firm.

Each heartily endorses the grassroots format and would recommend the NAP to anyone.

Is your Bridge IQ as good as gold?

Turn your bridge knowledge into NABC room nights, free plays and more.

Think you know a lot about bridge and bridge history? If you're really smart, March could be your lucky month. To celebrate Bridge Week in North America, which occurs during the 2004 Spring NABC here in Reno March 18–28, ACBL is sponsoring a bridge trivia contest with valuable prizes.

The two first-place prizes are knockouts: (1) five room nights at the host hotel for the 2004 Summer NABC in New York, plus 10 free plays for that NABC; (2) the same for the 2004 Fall NABC in Orlando.

There are 10 second-place prizes: each winner will receive 10 free plays at the 2004 Summer NABC or 2004 Fall NABC.

There are 20 third-place prizes: each will receive $100 in Bridge Bucks, spendable with the ACBL Sales Department, at tournaments or at clubs.

Here's how to win. Send your answers to the following 10 questions to editor@acbl.org or mail them to Editor, The Bridge Bulletin, 2990 Airways Blvd., Memphis TN 38116–3847. E-mail answers must be received by March 31, 2004. Standard mail must have a postmark of March 31, 2004, or earlier. Names will be drawn at random from among those entries with 10 out of 10 correct answers. A list of winners will be published in the May issue.

ACBL employees, members of the ACBL Board of Directors and their families are not eligible to participate. You must be an ACBL member in good standing to be eligible for a prize.

Test Your Bridge Knowledge

1. Explain how one could win the Vanderbilt Cup twice in the same year.
2. What is the claim to fame of the former Joel D. Gaines?
3. If Dagwood Bumstead played bridge with Charlie Brown, what convention is most likely to be their favorite?
4. What is the significance of Kalamazoo in bridge history?
5. Name the two former ACBL Presidents who have conventions named after them.
6. In his latter years, this giant of bridge concentrated on promoting world peace.
7. In which of Ian Fleming's James Bond novels was bridge a key part of the plot?
8. This player's name is on two conventions although he developed neither. Name him.
9. Which famous bridge writer penned his first — and arguably best — book as an "assignment" from Ira Corn?
10. What did John Bennett, of the famous Bennett murder case, do for a living?

Transfer squeeze

This deal occurred in second-round Vanderbilt action in the match between the squads captained by Jeff Roman and Carolyn Lynch.

♠ 9 7 4 ♥ 10 6 4 ♦ K 10 7 ♣ 10 9 7 4	♠ Q 8 ♥ K J 2 ♦ J 6 4 2 ♣ K Q 5 3
♠ A K 5 ♥ A 9 8 5 ♦ A Q 8 3 ♣ A 2	♠ J 10 6 3 2 ♥ Q 7 3 ♦ 9 5 ♣ J 8 6

At both tables, South declared 6NT. Jeff Roman received the opening lead of the ♠7 which he won in dummy with the queen. A diamond to the queen held (West ducked), and Roman continued with the ♦A and a third diamond. West took the king and continued with the ♠9. Roman won the ace and took stock.

With 11 tricks assured the 12th could, of course, come from taking the straight finesse in hearts. Roman, however, elected to try for a squeeze by playing the ♥A and a heart to the king. This strategy will work whenever an opponent is holding three or more hearts to the queen and four or more clubs.

On the actual layout, however, neither defender had such a hand, so the squeeze failed. Down one.

The play at Lynch's table began almost identically (spade lead won in dummy, diamond finesse), but she also decided against the heart finesse in favor of a possible squeeze. Lynch tried a slightly different approach, however. She played a heart to the king, and called for dummy's ♥J. East covered and Lynch won the ace. This was the position:

♠ — ♥ 2 ♦ 6 ♣ K Q 5 3	♠ J 10 6 ♥ 7 ♦ — ♣ J 8
♠ 4 ♥ 10 ♦ — ♣ 10 9 7 4	♠ K ♥ 9 8 ♦ 8 ♣ A 2

When Lynch played the last diamond, West was squeezed. He could pitch a spade, but the ♠K would be the last nail in the coffin.

Lynch's line of play transferred the threat to the defender holding long clubs and the ♥10 instead of the ♥Q. Making six earned Lynch's squad 17 IMPs.

Goodwill

project. Suddenly a man who was having a good streak turned to Compton and gave her $1000 worth of chips. "Here, put these to work in your program," he said.

And then there's Diane Cullen. She hosted the last Portland NABC and the 1998 Reno NABC. She recently lost her husband Paul, an ACBL tournament director, and at first she considered dropping off the tournament committee. But she changed her mind and has done a mountain of work. "She's the one who made this tournament," said Cynthia Sinn, who spoke briefly about Cullen.

Neal Moore took the mike to tell about the great work that has been done by Sheila Wimer, tournament co-chairman. "Not only has she done all kinds of work at the unit, district and national levels, she also has outstanding with newcomers. She teaches novice lessons and she has sponsored newcomer programs at clubs. I don't believe anyone anywhere has done more to promote newcomer programs."

The special Goodwill gift was two tokens promoting goodwill. Since the tokens have no value in the casino, most of the players will still have a couple of tokens when they go home, no matter what happens at the slot machines and the blackjack table.

Senior Team Trials Meeting on Wednesday

A meeting for players interested in learning about or participating in the Senior International Team Trials will be held Wednesday, March 24, at 10 a.m. in Sierra 1 on the Mezzanine Level. For more information, contact Dan Morse.

New Life Master

Don Waddell of Bettendorf IA needed 2.18 points, so the 3.19 he won in the bracketed knock-outs was more than enough for a gold card. He was playing with his wife Elaine, and their teammates were Donna and Don Flanagan. "I didn't play for about 25 years," said Waddell. "When I took up the game again, I called the ACBL and they found all the points I won 25 years ago."

Turn 'em off

Cell phones, audible pagers or any similar communication equipment may not be operated or operable in the playing area during a session of play at NABCs except for health-related equipment or by permission of the director-in-charge of the tournament or event.

Bridge and marriage

Should married couples play as partners? If they do, what sort of talk goes on during the ride home from the game – and later when they go to bed? The bridgetoday.com Panel Show in the Crystal Ballroom after the game tonight will feature several couples attempting to wrestle with these problems – probably in a facetious manner. Matt Granovetter will be the emcee. The couples include Donna and Chris Compton, Sheri Winestock and Fred Gitelman, Martha and Ralph Katz, Yvonne and Eddie Kantar, and Jan and Chip Martel.

At some North American Championships there is an occasional session where fewer than 300 tables are in play. Yesterday afternoon there were 300 tables in play – but that was just in the knock-outs! There were 32 teams in the Bracketed, 48 in the Seniors and 220 (!) in the Compact.

Notice to players

Each player must have an ACBL convention card filled out and on the table. Please note that other types of convention cards, such as the WBF convention card or homemade cards that do not sufficiently resemble the ACBL convention card, are not acceptable substitutes.

Zero Tolerance

Zero Tolerance is ACBL policy.

Commendable behavior includes (but is not limited to):

- Being a good “host” or “guest” at the table.
- Greeting others in a friendly manner.
- Praising the bidding and/or play of the opponents.
- Having two clearly completed convention cards readily available to the opponents. This is also a regulation.

Unacceptable behavior includes (but is not limited to):

- Badgering, rudeness, insinuations, intimidation, profanity, threats or violence.
- Negative comments concerning opponents’ or partner’s play or bidding.
- Gloating over good results.
- Constant and gratuitous lessons and analyses at the table.
- Loud and disruptive arguing with a director’s ruling.

If you experience someone exhibiting discourteous behavior or being other than civil, please call a tournament director immediately. If you feel that there was a very serious breach of discipline, in addition to the resolution by the tournament director at the table, please discuss the problem directly with the Director-in-Charge of the tournament.

Should it become necessary to call a tournament director, you may simply state: “This player is interfering with my enjoyment of the game.”

The director will then attempt to determine the facts. If he establishes there was unacceptable behavior, an immediate 1/4-board disciplinary penalty (3 IMPs in team games) shall be assigned to all offenders.

This may involve any one or all four players at the table, regardless of who initiated the unacceptable behavior. If both members of a partnership are guilty, the penalties are cumulative (1/4 board each = 1/2 board or 3 IMPs each = 6 IMPs).

If it is determined that a second offense has occurred in the same event, the offender(s) shall be ejected from future competition in that event.

An offender removed from an event shall be deemed not to have played in the event, no masterpoints will be awarded and no refunds will be made.

In the case of a serious offense and in the case of multiple offenses (three) during a tournament, a disciplinary committee may determine whether the offender(s) should be allowed to play in other events at the tournament and/or whether additional sanctions may be appropriate.

While the director may issue a warning, directors are strongly encouraged to give penalties and a warning should be given only when there is no clear violation, where the facts cannot be clearly determined or when there are mitigating circumstances. Offenders should receive an immediate penalty. Regardless of who may have initiated unacceptable behavior, all offenses are punishable. Retaliatory behavior is a punishable offense. Frivolous accusations also are considered as offenses under this policy.

Attendance still high

Total attendance to date is 6386 tables. Yesterday there were 1659 tables in play – 305 in the morning, 750 in the afternoon and 604 in the evening.

The right time to bid a minor

Bobby Wolff was faced with a tough decision on his fourth bid. He knew his side had quite a few tricks in notrump, but would he get in before the opponents ran five tricks? He decided that 5♦ offered better chances.

Of course this left it up to Sidney Lazard to find 11 tricks. The opening heart lead went to dummy’s ace, and Lazard immediately called for a club. West put up the queen and, after a bit of thought, led the ♦A and another diamond to dummy’s 10. Lazard ruffed a club, got back to dummy with a heart ruff and trumped another club. After cashing the ♦K he led a spade to the ace and ruffed a third club. The ace fell from East, so Lazard was to go to dummy’s ♠K and cash the long club for his 11th trick.

Wolff was right in his assessment. The defense can take four clubs and the ♦A for down one, and they would get two chances to do so. The first opportunity would be on the opening lead – West would have to lead a high club. The second chance would come when West took his ♦A.

East led the ♣9, which suggested that the ♣K was with West. So instead of finessing he flew with dummy's ace, played the ♥A and ruffed a heart. He crossed to the ♦A to ruff another heart and then he cashed the top three spades.

Now he exited with the second trump, and in the four-card ending East was on play to concede a ruff and discard or to lead a diamond and let Sadek put up the jack. Either way declarer had his plus 920.

(1) 4 to 5 second hesitation

The Facts: Both sides agreed there was a hesitation, though brief, prior to the double by West. The Director was summoned immediately after the double. On the ♦9 opening lead 5♠ was defeated three tricks, minus 300 E/W.

The Ruling: The Tournament Director determined that the break in tempo in conjunction with East's previous bid of 4♠ established unauthorized information (UI) for East. He ruled that the hesitation demonstrably suggested that bidding 5♠ would be more successful than defending 5♦ doubled and that pass was a logical alternative. The contract was changed to 5♦ doubled by South, plus 550 N/S.

The Appeal: E/W were the only players to attend the hearing. They contended that 4 to 5 seconds did not constitute a break in tempo (BIT) for this type of auction.

The Decision: The committee had no information as to the length of the hesitation other than "brief". Based on the TD's confirmation that the double was made after 4 to 5 seconds, the committee determined that no break in tempo had occurred. The committee restored the table result, 5♠ by West, minus 300.

Jeff Polisner, Chair.

Pre-Alert/Disclosure forms

If your partnership plays special overcalls, you must fill out a pre-Alert/Disclosure form and make it available to your opponents when you play in events that allow Mid-Chart and Super-Chart conventions.

This applies to NABC+, regional or higher knockout and Flight A Swiss games. Look for the light blue forms on the table where convention cards are available.

(1) Support for spades

The Facts: After the 4♠ call North hesitated prior to passing. The Stop card was not used. The Director was called after North's pass of 4♠. 5♠ failed by one trick, minus 50 E/W.

The Ruling: North's break in tempo (BIT) constituted unauthorized information (UI), demonstrably suggesting action when pass was a logical alternative. The result was changed to 4♠ by West, plus 420 for E/W.

The Appeal: N/S were the only players to appear. North contended that the BIT was no more than 20 seconds as she needed time to understand the auction, which to this point had been rapid. When she finally realized that East still had a call coming she passed. South felt he had no alternative to bidding, given his strong holdings in both of partner's suits. He felt the pause was no more than 12 to 15 seconds. The appeal form indicated that E/W estimated the BIT at 30 seconds.

The Decision: Despite the peculiarities and speed of the auction, the committee determined that North had paused considerably longer than necessary, creating UI from that BIT. The committee felt this BIT demonstrably suggested bidding. Pass was considered a logical alternative for South, although possibly a minority action. The committee changed the score to 4♠ by West, plus 420 for both sides.

Bart Bramley, Chair; Steve Garner, Chris Willenken, Jon Wittes, Ed Lazarus.

Bid Box Alerts and Announcements

When using bid boxes, ACBL suggests that players tap the Alert strip and say "Alert" at the same time.

When making an announcement, use the announcement word — such as "transfer" — and tap the Alert strip at the same time.

A player who Alerts or announces a bid should make sure his opponents are aware that an Alert or announcement has been made.

Want to save money?

You can save 20% on your meals at this hotel if you get a Connection Card and you are older than 55. Just go to the Connection Center across from Chevy's and ask for a card.

Correction

We misspelled the name of one of our new Life Masters yesterday. Her name is Gloria R. Weltz. She's still going strong -she's won another 18.11 points in the bracket knockouts.

Bronze Life Master

Leonids Maktenieks earned enough points yesterday to become a Bronze Life Master.

The Bridgetoday.com Panel Show discusses the hot topic of Bridge and Marriage. (No, really, this will be fun!) Join emcee Matthew Granovetter and panelists Donna and Chris Compton, Sheri Winestock and Fred Gitelman, Ralph and Martha Katz, Yvonne and Eddie Kantar, and Jan and Chip Martel for a very serious look (not!) into the terrible ordeals of married bridge players, how to cope, and how to overcome the enormous presures of bathroom bridge discussions, bedroom disagreements in the auction and those mornings after the 45% games. Questions from the audience welcome. Crystal Ballroom.

The show starts with the brief movie, "The Bridge Wives," the 1930s story of four wives who form a women's bridge team and how their frustrated husbands must cope with the household duties.

Wednesday, March 24

Hot dogs

Thursday, March 25
