What makes an NABC a hit?

The San Diego NABC has been successful. The attendance was beyond expectations and things moved smoothly.

“We were ready for this tournament,” said Ken Monzingo, tournament chair. “Bonnie and I were co-chairs in Las Vegas. It was rewarding, and it made us very excited about San Diego because of the success there.” Bonnie Bagley is the tournament co-chair.

“San Diego was easier than Las Vegas because we piggy-backed a lot of the preparation,” said Monzingo. “We had a core group of volunteers from Las Vegas. They all knew what they were doing when they came here. That helped jump-start things and helped make this tournament a success. We are a good team.

“We think we put on a good show,” said Monzingo. “The food was great, the entertainment was a hit and the My Fair (Little Old) Lady show was terrific. I’m so proud of the players. They’ve told us how much they loved this tournament.”

Monzingo and Bagley thank all the volunteers. “They came from Colorado and California,” said

NABC Chairs Ken Monzingo and Bonnie Bagley.

Bagley. “We didn’t have to twist arms – they were eager to participate.

“The hotel also helped make this NABC successful,” added Bagley. “Even the weather cooperated. It’s about the place and its beauty.”

Nickell leading in Reisinger BAM

Nick Nickell, six-time winner of the Reisinger Board-a-Match Teams, is in position to pick up No. 7 as his team enters the final day of play with a carryover of 4.05 boards.

Another member of the Nickell team, Bob Hamman, will be going for his 12th Reisinger win, Jeff Meckstroth and Eric Rodwell will be seeking their 9th, Zia Mahmood his fifth and Ralph Katz his second. The team, with Richard Freeman playing instead of Katz, won last year.

The second-highest carryover total in the 10-team final field belonged to Ishmael Delmonte,

Lynch leads Swiss teams

The squad captained by Carolyn Lynch will start today’s play in the Keohane North American Swiss Teams with a carryover of 40 victory points, more than 22 VPs ahead of the next highest qualifier.

Thirty-six teams will play in today’s two final sessions.

Lynch, of Scottsdale AZ, is playing with Mike Passell; Cezary Balicki and Adam Zmudzinski of Poland and Russian stars Andrew Gromov and Aleksander Dubinin.

The second-highest carryover total, 17.3, belongs to Dennis Dawson, Santa Fe NM, and his teammates, Xiadong Shi, Jiang Gu and Walter Johnson.

Right behind them with 16.75 VPs of carryover are Geeske Joel, Tobi Sokolow, Jill Levin, Jill Meyers, Debbie Rosenberg and Janice Seamon-Molson.

Bridge4People wants to know about you

Sabine Auken.

A Danish company hoping to market a new concept for bridge play is looking for information about bridge players as part of the development phase of the product.

According to Sabine Auken, who is working for the company, Bridge4People will combine actual card play – via BridgeSpinner, a card-dealing device – with the opportunity to have deals analyzed online. Bridge4People expects to launch in the fall of next year.

The concept includes the potential for global tournaments that can be played at home, after which players can download deals for review and analysis. Auken, a German star who lives in Denmark, says the plan is to market a product

Marines are fearless

Marine Captain Douglas Wacker is stationed in San Diego and invited his mother to come for Thanksgiving. LaNita Wacker of Shoreline WA knew the NABC was being held in San Diego and said she’d come if he’d play bridge with her.

There was only one problem: Douglas had never played bridge. Marines are known to be tough, however, and Semper Fi is their motto. It means always faithful.

Douglas went to the library and checked out some bridge books. He eventually bought 25 Bridge Conventions You Should Know by Barbara Seagram and Points Schmoints by Marty Bergen. He says it was a thrill for him and his mother to attend the celebrity lecture by Seagram and get

Goodwill message

As we prepare to leave this terrific San Diego NABC, let’s all take an extra moment to say “thank you” to our hosts. The hospitality and entertainment have been spectacular.

I look forward to see you at the Spring NABC in Reno.

Prizes

Players in any strat in any event who win their section will receive prizes. There are also prizes for first overall in any event. The Prize Desk is located next to the Registration Desk on the second floor outside the playing areas. "If your score has a 1 next to it, you can get a prize," says Tournament Chair Ken Monzingo.

Airport and rail

transportation for $5

By Al Schuster, Transportation Chair

It is easy to get to the San Diego Airport or the Amtrak train depot via public transportation. Walk across Harbor Drive and catch a north-bound trolley (Gillespie Field destination) to the next stop (America Plaza). Get off and walk back to the street the trolley just crossed (Broadway). The bus stop on the corner is the Airport Shuttle (Route 992). Take the bus for a 10-minute drive to the airport. The shuttle stops at both airport terminals, so tell the driver which airline you are flying. The time, including waiting, is about 20 minutes.

Ticketing for the trip is simple. At the trolley stop opposite the Hyatt, you will see a ticket machine which accepts cash, credit cards or debit cards. Purchase a one-day pass for $5 and show it to the trolley police, if asked, and the shuttle drivers.

If you are using Amtrak or the COASTER, the directions are the same except you cross the tracks at America Plaza and board a Blue Line (Old Town destination) and ride one stop to the Santa Fe Depot. If you feel adventurous, walk across Kettner Boulevard to the Santa Fe Depot in lieu of using the trolley to Old Town. The time including waiting is about 10 minutes.

Slow Play

Slow play, as opposed to careful or thoughtful play, is discourteous to your opponents -- and to all other competitors as well. Players and pairs who take more than their allotted time are subject to penalty.

In general, pairs who are rarely late will be warned while pairs who are habitually tardy and/or pay no attention to time limits will be penalized.

Life Master news

Pamela Fitch of Sacramento needed 11 gold points to become a Life Master, and she and Kathrun Le Gro of Carmichael CA had a good game in the Poinsettia Pairs on Friday, coming in third overall. It wasn't quite enough, though, so Fitch thought she was going to go home disappointed. A scoring correction, however, moved them into a tie for second, good for 11.92 gold points and a new LM for the ACBL.

Annette Sincock of Torrance CA and the Long Beach Bridge Club earned enough gold points in the Stratified Daylight Open Pairs on Saturday to claim her prized Life Master rank. She was playing with Bettyanne Houts of Long Beach.

Breaking the rules

By Barry Rigal

Consider the following deal where you play in 3NT on the lead of the ♦4.

♠ K 7 6 4
♥ A 8 3 2
♣ Q J 4

♠ A 2
♥ 9 6 5
♦ A K
♣ A 9 7 6 5 3

You take the ♦J with your king. What now? A simple approach would be to play a spade to dummy and go after clubs -- that covers most of the bases, but not the 4-0 breaks. Better is to lead a low club up to dummy at trick two -- lo and behold, East shows out.

Now you have to be careful. If you cross back to hand with the ♠A to lead a club up, West wins the ♣K, leaving clubs blocked, and plays a second diamond. Now you can't unscramble your tricks. Better is to make the somewhat unnatural-looking move of crossing to the ♦A at trick three. This sets up the opponents' diamonds, but in return you get to play a club up and let West win and cash his diamonds. You can win the spade return in dummy, unblock clubs and come to hand with the ♠A to claim the balance.

Colombian duo take National 99er Pairs

Malvina Aljure and Elsa Castillo, both of Cali, Colombia, took first place in the National 99er Pairs. They are a regular partnership in Colombia.

The two finished their last round early on Friday and left before getting their photo taken. "We had no idea we'd won," said Castillo.

Aljure has a son who lives in Los Angeles, and was visiting him. Castillo has a son who lives in Florida and she was visiting him. Because they were both in the U.S. at the same time, they decided to check out the NABC.

Castillo became an ACBL member four years ago. Aljure is a new member who joined on Thursday, the day before her win.

that will help players improve in addition to entertaining them.

She predicts Bridge4People "will become part of bridge homes all over the world."

At this phase of the development of the system, the company is seeking information about players and is urging ACBL members to go to the home page -- www.bridge4people.com -- to register and provide opinions and general information about their habits and interests.

"We invite you to sign up to take part in our online panel, where you can influence us with your input, feedback and great ideas or just follow our progress," Auken says.

Bridge4People has some heavyweight supporters, including Fred Gitelman, owner of Bridge Base Online, the world's largest Internet bridge community. Says Gitelman: "BridgeSpinner is an exceptional concept with a huge potential towards millions of bridge players."

European Bridge League President Gianarrigo Rona adds: "BridgeSpinner will be a bomb in bridge communities around the world and will change the game forever."

Cell Phones and Electronic Devices: Know the Rules

• If you're playing in a national-level event: All electronic devices are banned from the playing area.

"Electronic devices, excluding health-related equipment, capable of sending or receiving communication, including but not limited to, headphones, earphones, cellular phones and minicomputers: (1) shall not be allowed in the playing areas, adjacent hallways, restrooms or accessible break areas; and (2) shall not be used during a session.

These restrictions shall apply to all pairs, team members, captains, coaches, recorders and kibitzers and shall apply throughout any actual playing session or segment.

A violation of this policy shall result in a disciplinary penalty of one full board (or 12 IMPs at that form of scoring) for the first offense. A second offense shall result in disqualification from the event for the pair/team.

Kibitzers violating this policy shall be removed from the playing area for the remainder of the session."

Participants will be reminded not to approach the playing area with a personal electronic device in their possession, even if the device is turned off.

• If you're playing in a regional or Intermediate-Newcomer event: Turn those phones and pagers off.

"Cell phones, audible pagers or any similar communication equipment may not be operated or operable in the playing area during a session of play at NABCs except for health-related equipment or by permission of the director-in-charge of the tournament or event."

JUST FOR NEW PLAYERS

By Marti Ronemus

Dear New Players:

Well, here we are, and it's the last day of the tournament. Did you manage to win a section top? Did you get any prizes?

Having a souvenir from the tournament can really get into some people's blood. I was directing at a tournament once where a very tall, large man approached me on the last day and pushed a $20 bill into my breast pocket, saying firmly, "My wife is going to win a prize today!" Of course, I told him that under no conditions could I accept the $20, but I would ensure his wife got a prize. (At that point, we had so many prizes left over that we were giving them for unusual plays, and other fun things, so I could easily fake it.) When I tried to get him to take the $20 back, he wouldn't (did I mention that he was very large?), so I made sure to mention it later to my supervisor.

His eyes crossed and his lips disappeared when I told him a player had given me $20 to give his wife a prize, but when I showed him the man and suggested HE give it back, he just said, "Use it for a good cause." Duh. Like I wouldn't.

A souvenir is fun, but actually the unique experiences you are taking away from this tournament, the cards, meeting people from all over, the competition, the lectures and so on will be among your finest memories. As you gain more and more experience, the memories will not be so sharp. But they will still be unique.

For instance, make sure you attend a tournament in Las Vegas some time. My friend, Edith McMullin, inventor of Easybridge!, was directing at an NABC there and happened to be standing by the entry table when a gentleman dressed in a white suit and white cowboy boots and with a stunning blonde with a beehive hairdo on his arm approached. "Sell me an entry into your biggest game!" he said.

The director selling the entries asked if he knew how to play bridge, and the man brusquely repeated his request. So he was given an entry into the open area. Edith forgot to see later how he did, but two days later here he came again, still with the blonde. I know, you've guessed what is coming. And it is true. "Give me an entry into your smallest game," he said!

I hope you have learned lots of bridge, lots of bridge smarts and had a wonderful time. I've enjoyed mentoring you, and I know you will be guided by my sage advice. Heaven knows, I've given you lots.

One final tidbit. Remember to thank your directors and the people who put the tournament together. If you had any idea what they put up with, you'd be bowing and throwing money.

I know you'll be swamped with laundry and e-mail when you get home, but please e-mail me with all your problems, bridge or otherwise. I love to hear from you. mronemus@comcast.net.

	♦ A 8
	♣ A 10
West	North	East	South
		Pass	1♠
3♥	4♠	All Pass

Opening lead: ♥A.

Bidding commentary: West's 3♥ overcall is weak. The most descriptive weak jump overcalls are those that have strong suits with little or nothing on the side. Also, at this vulnerability, one can cheat a card and have a strong six-card suit to jump to the three level. North has a choice of responses. He can cuebid 4♥ to show a strong spade raise or simply jump to 4♠. 4♦ is also a possible response. These are the problems that preemptive jump overcalls present. A word to the wise: opponents hate to hear preempts.

Defensive commentary: East starts a high-low in hearts and West continues with the ♥K and ♥Q, dummy ruffing the third heart with the ♠9.

Defensive commentary #2: As East, before overruffing a relatively high spot card or even an honor with a strong trump holding of your own, ask yourself how many trump tricks you will take if you overruff and how many you will take if you don't overruff? In this case, if you overruff and partner shows out on the ♠K, declarer will have an easy time finessing you out of your remaining honor. Even if partner follows to the first spade, declarer may take the spade finesse, playing your partner for short spades. If you don't overruff, discarding a diamond instead, you are slated to take two trump tricks. When declarer plays the king and then the 10, you cover. Declarer wins the ace and you remain with the Q-7 and declarer remains with the 8-6-4-3. That's two trump tricks. Overruffing an honor with an honor (or its equivalent ♠9 or ♠10) is almost always a losing play when holding a trump honor with length along with a relatively strong intermediate spot. Something like: A-10-x-(x), K-10-x-(x) A-9-x-(x), K-9-x-(x), Q-9-x-x or substitute the 8 for the 9.

ACBL joins Facebook, Twitter

ACBL members can now discuss their favorite game on Facebook and Twitter, the popular social media web sites. Players can enjoy conversations on these free forums, allowing participants to meet other bridge enthusiasts from around the world, get the inside scoop on bridge news and events, and even leave messages for the ACBL staff.

"This provides a space for players to talk to each other and us," said Vicki Campbell, ACBL's marketing director.

To become a fan of the ACBL on Facebook, go to the ACBL home page and click the "Find us on Facebook" button.

To follow the ACBL on Twitter, go to www.twitter.com and follow @ACBLbridge.

Entry fees

Players must be ACBL members whose service fees or dues are current in order to compete in any of the following nationally ranked events: Nail Life Master Open Pairs, Smith Life Master Women's Pairs, Reisinger Board-a-Match Teams, Keohane North American Swiss Teams, Kaplan Blue Ribbon Pairs, Mitchell Open Board-a-Match Teams, Marsha May Sternberg Women's Board-a-Match Teams and the Senior Knockouts. The entry fees for these contests are $20 per player per session.

Players must also be current ACBL members to play in the Mini-Blue Ribbon Pairs, Miles Non-Life Master Pairs or National 99er Pairs. The entry fee is $17 per player per session.

Regional championships are $16 per player per session for ACBL members, $18 for non-members.

All other events are $15 per player per session for ACBL members, $17 for non-members.

Bid Box Alerts and Announcements

When using bid boxes, ACBL requires that players tap the Alert strip and say "Alert" at the same time.

When making an Announcement, use the Announcement word (such as "transfer") and tap the Alert strip at the same time.

A player who Alerts or Announces a bid must make sure his opponents are aware that an Alert or Announcement has been made.

Monitoring

At this and future North American Championships, ACBL will be monitoring NABC+ events with visible, real-time cameras. The images will be recorded and will be available for later official inspection and review.

By general monitoring of the session and participants' behavior, ACBL has another source of information that may be useful in determining facts and settling issues arising from some types of ethical and behavioral complaints or actions. Please summon a director if a problem occurs at the table.

This procedure is intended to assure everyone that the playing field is level and that misbehavior will not be tolerated.

Tote bags for sale

There are extra tote bags and the tournament is offering them for sale. You can buy one for $4 or three for $10. These are the ones that were given as registration gifts.

Convention card reminder

Each player is required to have a convention card filled out legibly and on the table throughout a session. Both cards of a partnership must be identical and include the first and last names of each member of the partnership.

If a director determines that neither player has a substantially completed card, the partnership may play only the Standard American Yellow Card and may use only standard carding. This restriction may be lifted only at the beginning of a subsequent round after convention cards have been properly prepared and approved by the director. Further, the partnership will receive a 1/6-board matchpoint penalty for each board played, commencing with the next round and continuing until the restriction is lifted. In IMP team games, penalties shall be at the discretion of the director.

If the director determines the partnership has at least one substantially completed convention card but has not fully complied with ACBL regulations, the director may give warnings or assign such penalties as he deems to be appropriate under the circumstances.

The objective of these warnings and penalties is the encouragement of full compliance with ACBL regulations.

He's enjoyed playing. "My mom's a great teacher," he says. "I've really had fun."

Finding her majesty

This was originally published in the Contract Bridge Forum under the byline of Frank Queen.

Okay, now you are really in for a treat: Joyce Klein, an officer of Broward County Unit 243, sent me in a poem that she wrote about 30 years of frustration over not finding a queen.

I don't usually include outside poems, but she said all the magic things one should say to a bridge egomaniac such as me.

She thinks I am funny (okay, she couldn't get it all right), invited me to come to their regional (I note that she did not offer to play with me, but rather to watch. Sometimes bridge is better with a partner), she said she was a fan (that would have actually been enough) and finally she said she liked my column. I have kept meticulous track of those who like my column and soon we will be able to have a nice two-table game. (Please Stacy, I only need three more).

But I digress.

Here is Joyce's poem:

Tale of the Elusive Queen

For thirty years, or so it seems

I have never, ever found a queen!

As a novice I was taught it would be much better

If I finessed for the queen with eight in a suit, but with nine, never!

This always worked for me when I needed only eight tricks

But always failed when I needed nine – and I went down six!

The two-way finesse is especially hard
As there are two ways to go wrong to find the card!

Singleton kings and jacks always fall

But the queen is hardly ever there at all!

My partner is pleased when he puts down the dummy

Showing all four queens so I won't have to worry!

I've taken many bridge lessons and read lots of books

But they haven't told me how to find a queen without taking a look!

The great minds of bridge should put their heads together

To find the queen for us should be their endeavor!

And when your partner has 38 points and you think seven is gin

It's that elusive queen that does you in!

When there's only one way to make your contract and you come undone

Because you always finesse to the queen and one!

As for the tale that the queen lies over the Jack Well, my queens never quite got the knack!

Queen and one is never a good lead

But when my opponents lead it, it does fix me, indeed!

When we have ten trumps, I claim with pride
But then I go down with the queen offside!

My best idea to date, as yet

Is to throw all of the queens out of the deck!

Then we'd only have to look down on the floor
Where we'd find the queens, maybe even all four!

Ozdil on the job

Two declarer-play problems solved by Melih Ozdil are worth of a wider audience. The first comes from the Senior Knockout Teams quarterfinal round.

- (1) 6-9 high-card points with four or more trumps.
(2) Game try.

Ozdil won the club lead in hand and led a club to the ace, then a spade to the king, ducked (East pitched a club).

Now declarer can negotiate trumps easily enough but needs to hold his heart losers to one. With East apparently having the heart length, Ozdil guessed to advance the ♦8 and run it to East's 9. Back came a diamond to the queen and ace, and Ozdil ruffed the third diamond with the ♠8. He advanced the ♠8, ducked, East discarding a club, and led a third spade, East discarding another club. West won and played back a fourth spade as East discarded a heart.

Ozdil won in dummy and exited with a diamond, pitching a heart, to endplay East to open up hearts for his ninth trick.

The second deal comes from the first day of the Keohane North American Swiss Teams.

Ozdil won the spade lead in dummy and led a trump to the 7 and 10. Back came a diamond to the ace. West won the first club and played a second diamond. Ozdil won in hand, crossed to the ♣J and led a spade to the queen. He cashed two rounds of clubs, pitching a spade and diamond from dummy. This was the ending:

Slammed in San Diego

By Mark Horton

In team events that involve what I sometimes refer to as "the William Tell" movement, accurate slam bidding is essential, as in short matches a single slam swing can be decisive. By way of explanation, William Tell, the folk hero of Switzerland, was known as an expert marksman with the crossbow. At the time, the Habsburg emperors of Austria were seeking to dominate Uri. Hermann Gessler, the newly appointed Austrian Vogt of Altdorf, raised a pole in the village's central square, hung his hat on top of it, and demanded that all the local townsfolk bow before the hat. When Tell passed by the hat without bowing to it, he was arrested. He received the punishment of being forced to shoot an apple off the head of his son, Walter, or else both would be executed. On 18 November 1307, Tell split the fruit with a single bolt from his crossbow, without mishap. When Gessler queried him about the purpose of a second bolt in his quiver, Tell answered that if he had killed his son, he would have turned the crossbow on Gessler himself.

Drowning my sorrows at the end of day one of the Keohane North American Swiss Teams (you will discover why in due course), I just happened to pick up a few stories from players who were willing to spill the beans.

Dan Morse told me about this one:

♠ Q 7 4
♥ 8 5
♦ A
♣ J 9 8 7 6 4 3

♠ A K 8 3
♥ A Q J 6
♦ 8 4
♣ A K 5

West	North	East	South
			2♣
Pass	2♦	Dbl	?

South's decision to open 2♣ rather than 2NT is open to question. Before we consider the best way to proceed after East's double of 2♦ would your methods allow you reach the excellent club slam after a 2NT opening?

One method that I helped to refine with the famous partnership of Sandra Landy and Sally Sowter (as she was known then) would have seen the auction go like this:

North	South
	2NT
3♠	3NT
4♥	4♠
5♦	5♥
6♣	Pass

3♠ asks South to bid 3NT and then 4♥ shows a slam try in clubs (4♣ would be clubs and diamonds, 4♦, diamonds and clubs, 4♠ diamonds and 4NT 5-5 or better in the minors). After a club-agreeing cuebid by South, it is easy enough to cuebid to slam.

Going back to our first auction, the best move for South is to pass the double. That allows North to bid 3♣ and if South then raises to 4♣, North cuebids 4♦ and once again the slam is easily reached.

However, South elected to bid 3♦ over the double, asking for a four-card major. North bid 4♣ and when South raised to 5♣ North decided to call it a day.

With a void in partner's suit there seemed little point in investigating a grand slam. North's space consuming overbid was the real culprit. After something along the lines of 1♣ - 1♠; 3♠ - 4♦; 4♥ - 5♣; 5♥ - 6♦, North has an easy 7♠ bid.

Everyone knows that dealing with a strong balanced hand is a nightmare - take a look at this one:

- (1) One king or two queens.

I thought everyone in North America would play some version of Kokish in this situation where 2♣ - 2♦; 2♥ is either natural or a powerful 25-plus balanced hand, but here North was using a rather old-fashioned method. Even so, when South jumped to 6♥, it seems incredible that North did not go on to seven.

This was even worse:

♠ A K J 9
♥ A Q J 10 8 4

	1♥	Pass	1♠
Pass	3♣	Pass	3♦
Dbl	3♥	Pass	3♠
Pass	4NT	Pass	5♦
Pass	5♠	All Pass

- 3♦ Fourth suit forcing.

This should be an easy hand to bid if North opens 2♣. After 2♦ - 2♥; 2♠ - 3♠, it is duck soup to cuebid to the cold grand slam.

Still, it should not be impossible to get there after North's actual choice.

Over West's double, North should bid 3♠. Now South cuebids in clubs and over 4♦ might well bid 4♥. That would already be enough for North to bid 7♠.

North's failure to bid even a small slam saw the Rabbi's squad fail to make the cut by the smallest possible margin.

After that I'll conclude with a deal where North-South finally got things right:

♠ A K 8 4 2
♥ A J 7 4

♦ A Q J 9 8 4
♣ A K 10 7 4

West	North	East	South
			1♦
2♠	Dbl	Pass	5♣
Pass	7♦	All Pass

When North's negative double saw South show his pronounced two-suiter, North (who happened to be the villain of the piece on my third example) had heard enough.

Today I'm hoping for a few part scores!

West	North	East	South
		1♥	Pass
2♥	Pass (1)	Pass	3♦
Pass	3NT	All Pass

(1) Break in tempo -- alleged to be five seconds.

Facts: North played 3NT making three for a score of North-South plus 600 after the lead of the ♠A. The director was called after the play was over. South contended that there was no BIT and this hand would always balance with 3♦.

Director's ruling: The director judged that there was a BIT by North over 2♥. This demonstrably suggested action over inaction (pass) by South and pass was judged to be a logical alternative. Therefore, the result was adjusted to 2♥ by East down and a score of East-West minus 100.

The appeal: North-South appealed the director's ruling. North and South were the only players to attend the committee meeting. According to the screening director, East-West claimed that North took five seconds to pass after 2♥. South said that there was no hesitation. It took at most three seconds for North to pass. By the time East-West called the director, North had left the table for a break.

North-South said that East-West made no comments about any hesitation during the auction or when dummy was displayed. After the completion of play, one of the East-West players remarked that North had quite a good hand. They decided that there must have been a hesitation. South also argued that because the opponents had found a fit and stopped in 2♥ that North was marked with a good hand, and that it was clear to balance by bidding his good six-card suit.

The decision: When there is a BIT that might provide unauthorized information, players are encouraged to either call the director or get confirmation of the BIT from the opponents right away. By delaying the director call, East-West considerably weakened its claim of a tempo break.

Based on the facts presented by the screening director and North-South, the committee decided that the time it took North to pass did not constitute an "unmistakable hesitation." Thus, the table result of 3NT by North making three and a score of North-South plus 600 was restored for both sides.

The committee: Doug Doub, chair, Michael Kamil, Fred King, Hendrick Sharples and Riggs Thayer.

West	North	East	South
		Pass	Pass
1NT (1)	Pass	2♦ (2)	2♥
3♥	3♠	Pass (3)	Pass
4♥	All Pass

- (1) 15-17 high-card points.
- (2) Transfer to hearts.
- (3) Hesitation.

Facts: The final contract was 4♥ making four for a score of East-West plus 620 after the lead of the ♠7. The director was called after the 4♥ bid and again after the play of the deal was completed. There was disagreement on the length of the hesitation by East. North-South said the hesitation was one minute while East said it was only a second. West said that there had been some joking during the time East was thinking.

Director's ruling: The director judged that there was an unmistakable hesitation by East, that the hesitation demonstrably suggested action over inaction and that the pass by West over 3♠ was a logical alternative. Therefore, he adjusted the result to 3♠ by North down one and a score of North-South minus 50.

The appeal: East-West appealed and East and West were the only players to attend the hearing. North-South were joking before the deal to such an extent that East requested them to be quiet until the end of the round. North-South alerted their Polish Club system. Before South bid 2♥, he said, "Let's see, what should I bid?" East admitted to asking questions about both opponents' bids. The answer to the query about South's bid was ambiguous. The answer was that it might be one- or two-suited, and, if two-suited, South might have only four spades. North's 3♠ was just natural and based on the auction.

East said she just wanted to understand the auction. West said East only paused for a second or two.

The decision: A player is allowed to take any legal call that he believes is in his side's best interest, so long as his partner does not make extraneous information available to him that suggests a call. North-South alleged to the director (who was not present at the committee meeting) that East-West took one minute. East admitted to "a second."

The determination of whether there was unauthorized information available was clearly going to decide the merits of the case, so the committee carefully examined the evidence on that issue. East's time for thinking was disputed, but it is clear that West noticed East's thinking because he told the director that "There had been some joking during the time East was thinking."

East's questions about the opponents' auction also provided UI to West and they suggested that East had enough values to consider further action.

Regardless of the improprieties that East-West suggested that North-South committed, these items were sufficient to convince the committee that UI was made available to West. Further, the committee thought that UI was made available to West. Further, the committee thought that West's 4♥ bid was evidence of the availability of UI.

Upon determination that UI was present, suggesting the 4♥ bid, while pass was a less successful logical alternative, the committee adjusted the result for both sides to 3♠ by North down one and a score of North-South minus 50.

The appeal was found to have merit because of the dispute about the existence of UI.

The committee: Michael Huston, chair, Darwin Afdahl, Mark Feldman, Robb Gordon and Patty Tucker.

Monzingo agreed that the hotel personnel have been fabulous. "They were above and beyond what we expected," said Monzingo. "I've been chairing tournaments since the Seventies and this is the most cooperative and supportive group I've seen. They like the bridge players.

"Jeff Johnston has allowed us free rein for what we've asked for. He allowed us to put on a good show. He trusted us and let us 'go for it,' even when we could tell he was skeptical.

"I'm happy it's over and I'm sad it's over," he added. "We've been inundated with love. The players have showered us with it."

Monzingo says there are still plenty of prizes. "Please come to the prize desk. If you've won any section, any strat, any knockout, any Swiss. If your score has a '1' by it, you have a nice prize coming."

NABC Insider

As the San Diego NABC winds down, the Insider hopes you have all enjoyed yourselves as much as he has. We hope to quickly complete our negotiations to return to the Manchester Grand Hyatt in 2015 or so. Mr. Manchester and the Supreme Commander have agreed in principal, the Insider will work out the picky little details.

In the short term, the NABC planners are already hard at work on the Spring, 2010 NABC in Reno. The tournament will be held at the Grand Sierra Resort, Hotel and Casino. It is the same place where the Reno Hilton used to be but most of the place has been re-modeled and fancied up. The room rate is excellent with plenty of rooms available. Make your reservations soon as we all expect another "Grand" NABC. Kathy and her local team are putting all the pieces together to welcome you. Be sure to check the Insider's notes on the ACBL Reno Web pages for more details as we lead up to Spring, 2010. And, don't forget New Orleans and Orlando, the other two NABCs next year. The primary hotels for both these tournaments are Marriotts – time to rack up Marriott Rewards Points in two of our favorite NABC cities. Safe travels, see you soon.

The Senior Knockout Teams

By Phillip Alder

Who played the most boards in one event at this tournament?

When Senior events (then, 55 and older) were started by the World Bridge Federation, they played fewer boards than in the women's and open events. It was felt that the older players would not have as much stamina as the younger competitors. And in those days, the Venice Cup, Bermuda Bowl and Team Olympiad tournaments required teams to play 64 boards a day for two weeks. By the end, the level of play noticeably deteriorated.

Now that the WBF has reduced schedules to 48 boards a day, Seniors play as much as everyone else.

Here, though, the most boards were played by the finalists of the Senior Knockout Teams, who had six days of 64-board matches.

In the final, Carolyn Lynch, Mike Passell, Garey Hayden, Mark Lair and Melih Ozdil won easily against Amos Kaminski, Arnold Fisher, Fred Hamilton, Allan Graves, George Mittelman and Yeshayahu Levit from Israel by 104 IMPs.

First, a problem on defense from the final:

Kaminski led a heart. Lynch won in her hand and played a club toward the dummy. West took his queen and shifted to the ♠10, ducked around the South's king. Lynch led another club and lost only six tricks: three spades, one diamond and two clubs.

Lair guessed well to lead the ♠10, Ozdil encouraging with the 4 (upside-down signals) and Graves winning with his king. On declarer's low-club lead, West won with his queen and East dropped the 9, the unnecessarily high card being a Smith Echo emphasizing that he liked spades.

Lair continued with the spade 8. After declarer played low from the dummy, Ozdil overtook with his queen and shifted to the ♦3, the low card guaranteeing at least one honor in the suit. So when declarer played the king, Lair won with his ace and returned the ♦J.

South ducked this trick, took the diamond continuation and played a club. Lair won with his ace and led a spade through dummy's J-7 to East's A-8, allowing Ozdil to win two tricks in spades and the ♦10.

The defense took three spades, three diamonds and two clubs for down two.

Plus 90 and plus 200 gave the winners 7 IMPs on the board.

Now back to the defensive problem, which featured a missed opportunity. This was the full deal:

When 3NT played by Ozdil, Hamilton led the ♣10. But when Fisher took dummy's king with his ace, he returned the ♣J. Now Ozdil had nine tricks: two spades (with the marked finesse), six diamonds and one club.

Passell led the ♣A, then found the lethal shift to the ♥J. When declarer called for a low card from dummy, Hayden removed the ♥10 from his hand, which would have allowed them to defeat the contract because West could have continued with the ♥9 and ♥6, giving the defense one club and four hearts.

Hayden, however, returned the ♥10 to his hand and played the 7.

Passell continued with the ♥9, but East had to win with his 10. When Hayden did not cash the ♥A, Mittelman took 10 tricks: two spades, six diamonds and two clubs.

Reisinger

Daniel Zagorin, Kevin Bathurst, Bas Drijver, Sjoert Brink and Ashley Bach. They start the day with 2.45 boards.

Also close, with 2.18, are Michael Becker, Aubrey Strul, Claudio Nunes, Fulvio Fantoni, Espen Lindqvist and Boye Brogeland.

Rodwell set MP record at last year's Fall NABC

Eric Rodwell was on fire at last year's Fall NABC in Boston: He was on the winning team in the Mitchell Open Board-a-Match Teams and the Reisinger Board-a-Match Teams, and he won the Kaplan Blue Ribbon Pairs with Jeff Meckstroth. He was also second in the Nail Life Master Open Pairs with John Diamond.

Rodwell's performance is the best ever at the Fall tournament. He won 623.75 points in Boston, and captured the Goren Trophy (which replaces the Herman Trophy) as the award for the player who earns the most masterpoints at a Fall NABC. This total eclipses the previous record of 449.37 by Geir Helgemo in 1999.

The truth according to Eddie

An item in the NABC Diary on Saturday recounted an anecdote from an NABC in San Diego 41 years ago. According to the author, there were many sick players at the tournament, and one of the symptoms of whatever was going around was that players were throwing up a lot.

The story was that Eddie Kantar and Marshall Miles had a bad auction to a worse slam. Later in the game, a player at the table where those boards had been sent jumped up and ran for the restroom but didn't make it. Kantar supposedly said, "I guess they just duplicated our slam auction from the last round."

Kantar dropped by the Daily Bulletin office to tell what really happened.

Kantar's partner was actually Bob Hamman, who had a case of whatever was afflicting so many others.

"We had an auction that made Bob declarer," Kantar said. "And when the opening lead was made and I put down the dummy, Bob threw up on the table."

Kantar recalled that one of his opponents was B. Jay Becker, who looked at Hamman and said, "Bob, it's not that bad a dummy."

San Diego 1994: A look back

There were many well-played deals when the NABC was in San Diego in the last time. Here are a few of them:

Endplayed in spades

Don Blum had trouble seeing the light at the end of the tunnel on this deal. It seemed he had one too many losers, but he found the way to eliminate one.

Dlr: East	♠ Q 4 3

West led his singleton spade to the jack and ace, and Blum led a club to the king to start work on the trumps. He led the ♥8 and passed it, West winning with the ace. West led the ♣Q, and Blum shed a diamond on the ace. He cashed the ♥K, noticing that both opponents followed.

Next came the ♦A, the ♦K and a diamond ruff with the ♥J — East was fixed. He could overruff now, or be thrown in later — either way he was going to have to lead away from his spade holding, and the queen in dummy was going to be Blum's game-going trick. East actually ruffed in immediately, cashed the ♠K and led another spade, hoping his partner had one more trump. No way.

The answer

Miguel Reygadas of Mexico was faced with a difficult task — finding a ninth trick in his notrump game contract on this deal from the Swiss Teams. After a little thought, he found the answer.

With a spade lead, Reygadas would have had no problem — as a matter of fact that was the opening lead at the other table. That declarer quickly made 10 tricks by giving up a trick to the ♣Q and taking four clubs, three hearts and three spades.

But West led the ♦A and continued with a diamond, ducked to the jack. Back came a spade and Reygadas played the ace. He set up a diamond trick by leading the 9 to West's king, and he own the heart return with the ace. This is when he stopped to think — "Where am I going to find my ninth trick?"

Finally he led a low spade. West took the queen and got out with a heart, but now Reygadas was in charge because he had rectified the count for a squeeze. He cashed the ♦Q and carefully discarded the ♠K so that he could maintain the lead in dummy. Next he cashed the ♠J and East could not find a safe discard from the three clubs and two hearts he had left. If he threw a heart, both of dummy's hearts would be good. If he discarded another club, declarer's suit would run.

The Good the Bad and the Ugly

By Richard Colker

Can you find a way to make 5♦ on the following deal from the IMP Pairs? The Good news is that I did.

Dir: East	♠ A 6 5 4
Vul: E-W	♥ A Q 9 3
	♦ 9 4
	♣ A J 9
♠ K Q J 9 7 3		♠ 8
♥ 10 6 4		♥ K J 7 2
♦ 8 2		♦ K 10 7 6
♣ 3 2		♣ 10 8 6 5
	♠ 10 2
	♥ 8 5
	♦ A Q J 5 3
	♣ K Q 7 4

West led the ♠K, won by dummy's ace. The ♦4 was led to the queen, and the ♥Q was finessed, losing to the king. East returned a low heart, won by dummy's ace, and the ♦9 was led to the jack. The ♥Q was cashed, revealing the unhappy news that there was an unavoidable trump loser. The ♣4 was led to dummy's ace, leaving the following position:

	♠ 6 5 4
	♥ 9 3
	♣ J 9
♠ Q J 9 7		♠ —
♥ 6		♥ J 7
♦ —		♦ K
♣ 2		♣ 10 8 6
	♠ 10
	♣ K Q 7

I ruffed a heart, cashed the ♣K, led the ♣7 to dummy's jack, ruffed dummy's last heart with my last trump, and cashed the ♣Q — while East followed to all five tricks. At trick 13, West won my ♠10, while East ruffed with his high king of trump.

And now for the Bad news. The contract was 6♦. Now that was Ugly.

The worst trump break

By Billy Miller

Playing in a new partnership with Howard Chandross, our auction produced a normal sounding, but rather strange, final contract considering the distribution. This was the deal:

Dir: South	♠ 6
Vul: None	♥ A J 8
	♦ A K Q 9 7
	♣ Q J 9 4

	♣ A 8 7

I leave the critique of the auction to you.

Chandross has received many a bad break in is time, but I submit this one for a record. A 7-0 trump break at a four-level contract, and he made it!

Declarer won the opening diamond lead and knocked out the trump ace. His jaw dropped when his right-hand opponent showed out. I was dummy and assumed we were doomed. Calmly, he took a couple of finesses, which worked, and allowed LHO to take the ace of trumps and two low ruffers. Plus 420 and, luckily, the game was IMPs.
