Award winning TD speaks 'newcomer'

Priscilla Smith, winner of the Jane Johnson TD Award, with Jeff Johnston, ACBL's director of player services.

On Friday, Jeff Johnston, director of player services for the ACBL, made his way to the room where newcomers play. On arriving, he asked Tournament Director Priscilla Smith if she was near a break in the game that was in progress.

Not really, she said. "Well," asked Johnston, "is it okay if I make an announcement?"

Smith agreed, and moments later she learned why Johnston wanted to take the microphone.

It was to announce that Smith had been selected as the 2009 winner of the Jane Johnson TD Award for outstanding customer service.

Of course, the news was greeted by enthusiastic applause from the room full of newcomers.

"I'm proud of her," said Judy Cotterman, with whom Smith has worked for about 15 years running newcomer games at NABCs. "Priscilla is so kind, and she's always answering questions. She is super at teaching the club director course."

Smith lives Marietta, in the Atlanta area. At one time, she was an executive with a company that made scratch-off lottery tickets. She left the business in 1980 and started playing bridge in the mid-Eighties.

It wasn't long before she was recruited to run the intermediate/newcomer games for Georgia Unit 114 in Atlanta. She learned her trade from Edith McMullin and now has vast experience in the world of newcomers.

She says she is so successful with newcomers because "I speak their language. When they ask

DeMartino elected 2010 ACBL president

The ACBL Board of Directors elected District 25's Richard DeMartino as ACBL president for 2010. The election took place during the Board's meetings earlier this week.

DeMartino of Riverside CT has served as District 25 (New England) director since 2001.

It's showdown day in GNT flights

Four flights of the Grand National Teams get down to the business of determining champions today.

In the Championship Flight, teams captained by Rose Meltzer (District 21) and Justin Lall (npc, District 24) will do battle. Meltzer defeated the District 23 Jill Meyers team 172-102. Lall defeated Bruce Rogoff (3) 160-109. Rogoff led by 21 IMPs with a quarter to go but lost the final set 75-3.

Here at the matchups, by captain and district for the other flights: A – Dave Grubbs (19) versus Chien-Yao Tseng (23); B – Bev Smith (11) versus Robert C.F. Wang (23), and C – Brett Elliott (16) versus Bryan Wyman (12).

In all, 93 teams entered the four GNT championship flights in Washington. Only Flight B had representatives from all 25 districts.

New Junior Ambassador Eric Mayefsky is presented by District 21 Director Bruce Blakely.

Ambassadors named at Junior reception

Some 75 young players attended yesterday evening's Junior reception, hosted by Goodwill Committee Chair Aileen Osofsky and ACBL Youth Coordinator Patty Tucker.

Tucker announced that Bryan Delfs, 24, of Pleasant Prairie WI, has been elected to the new position of Junior Advocate. The role of the advocate is to forward questions or concerns from Junior players to ACBL management.

Tucker also announced the equally new title of

U.S. Junior squads earn world championship berths

Two U.S. Junior teams earned spots to the 2010 world under-26 championship at a qualifying game here in Washington earlier this week.

The lineup of USA1 is Justin Lall, Jeremy Fournier, Jason Chiu and Roger Lee. The team will add a pair in advance of the world championship. USA2's roster is Matt Meckstroth, Kevin Dwyer, Owen Lien, Zach Brescoll, Sam Katz and Dan Goldfein.

The two teams will compete for the Patino Cup, given to the winner of the World Junior Team Championship. A site for the contest is still being negotiated.

Spingold, Wagar pre-registration notice

Teams wishing to enter the Spingold, Mini-Spingold or Wagar Knockout Teams must pre-register by 8 p.m. tonight. There will be no exceptions. Please see Tournament Director Steve Bates in the Marriott Ballroom.

Bertheau, Lagerman set pace in LM Pairs

The Swedish pair of Peter Bertheau and Jan Lagerman are currently on top in the von Zedtwitz Life Master Pairs. Starting the semifinal round in 23rd place, the pair posted scores of 62.21% and 63.97% in the afternoon and evening sessions, respectively, to take the lead.

In second are Marty Fleisher of New York City and Michael Kamil of Holmdel NJ.

Seventy-eight pairs will play in today's two-session final round.

In the Bruce LM-5000 Pairs, Judith Marshall and Sharon Benz of Buffalo NY are leading the field after yesterday's semifinal round. Boosted by a strong carryover from their third-place finish in the qualifying round on Friday, Marshall and Benz turned in solid performances of 53.39% in the afternoon session and 61.01% in the evening set of the semifinal round.

In a close second place are Mick McGuire of Hernando MS and Ned Irving of Hot Springs Village AR.

The final will be contested by 52 pairs.

In the Young LM-1500 Pairs, the local duo of Mel Yudkin of Annandale VA and Christon Johnson of Falls Church VA are in first place after four sessions of play. Yudkin and Johnson were 17th after the qualifying round, but turned in a very strong first semifinal score of 67.42% and paired it with a 57.53% in the second semifinal to lead the field by almost two boards.

In second place is another pair of local players: Brian Hartwig and Michael McQuistan of Laurel MD. They were second after the qualifying round as well.

Forty pairs have survived to today's final round.

Goodwill Message

The late Dick Frey, editor of The Bridge Bulletin, wrote these words of wisdom in 1960 but they are still applicable today: "Only a few of us will win championships, but all of us can win new friends. And, unlike the coveted silver trophies, we keep the friends without having to win them again and again."

JUST FOR NEW PLAYERS

Becoming a Life Master

By Leslie Shafer

Many years ago, after a session at a local regional, I went in search of my friend who was playing in the newcomer section. The scores were about to be posted and I saw that she had a shot at first place. In fact, she did win a section top. There may have been someone in China who didn't hear her screams of excitement on winning her first red masterpoint. I did a little dance myself, trying to get out her way.

"That's wonderful, Elaine! Now, let's go get lunch."

"Wow, red points! You know, Leslie, red is my favorite color. I look really good in red, too."

I could see that this was going to take a while. "Well, I think the restaurant's soup du jour is tomato. You should be ecstatic. Let's go."

We got her matchpoint scores, prize and a hand record and were finally on our way. Wryly, I noted that we walked on red carpet. As we entered the dining room, I saw that the curtains, chairs and menus were also in red. I finally realized that I had entered (eerie music swells) "The Red Zone."

After placing our orders, we picked up our hand records. Glancing around the room, I noticed a familiar face two tables away from us. "Pssst, Elaine. See that guy over there? That's Paul Soloway. He has over 40,000 masterpoints!"

"Really?" Her eyes widened. "Do you know how many of them are red?"

Masterpoints are awarded in certain colors, and you must have a minimum number of points in a variety of colors to reach Life Master status. The most common is black points, which you can win in a club duplicate game. Most silver points are awarded at sectional tournaments, but they are also available in special games at clubs. The games are referred to as STaCs (Sectional Tournaments at Clubs). The elusive red and gold points come from regional tournaments and NABCs.

New requirements for attaining Life Master status will take effect Jan. 1 for players who join after Dec. 31 or who let their memberships lapse after that date before becoming Life Masters. Current members who maintain active status can qualify under existing rules. Under the new rules, players will need 500 masterpoints with at least 50 gold; another 50 red or gold; 75 silver and 75 black.

Current requirements are 300 total points with at least 25 gold, another 25 red or gold, 50 silver and 50 black.

Two ways to mine for gold points at this NABC:

1) Knockouts: Also known as KOs. Scored by IMPs (as are Swiss teams), your team plays a session against another team (see Tournament Terminology below). Whoever wins that match advances to the next round. Usually there are four or more rounds. If you win two matches, you will win some gold points. This is the easiest way to win your gold points.

2) Section top or overall placing in Strat A or B of a two-session open pairs. My first two gold points were achieved this way. Being first in your section in Stratum A (open) or B (usually up to 2000) will net you some gold points for that session. Placing in the final for both sessions of the event will also win gold. But you need to be very good or very lucky (sometimes both) to be successful in this event.

Opening lead: ♥A.

Bidding commentary: West's passed-hand takeout double shows 9-11 HCP, plus support for the unbid suits. In addition, West is likely to have four hearts, the unbid major. North's jump to 2NT is "conventional." It is the equivalent of a limit raise because a jump to 3♠ after a takeout double is considered preemptive. South, with a minimum and balanced hand (the pits), signs off at 3♠.

Defensive commentary: West cashes three hearts and shifts to the ♦J.

Play commentary: As South, you see that

West, a passed hand, has already turned up with 10 HCP, so East must have both black kings. There is still a chance. Win the ♦Q, cash the ♠A, continue with the ♦A and ♦K, stripping that suit, and exit a spade. On a good day, East will have ♠K x and be forced to return a club. Knowing East has the ♣K makes it easy to play the ♣Q and make the contract. If West is marked with the ♣K, play a low club from dummy hoping East has the jack.

If a passed hand turns up 10 HCP, play the partner for any missing queen, king or ace. If a passed hand turns up with 11 HCP, play the partner for any missing jack, queen, king or ace. If a passed hand turns up with 12 HCP, you are playing against a very conservative bidder!

Tournament Terminology 101

If you're confused by the terms used to describe the different types of bridge events played at clubs and tournaments, you're not alone. Here is a list of some common bridge events with explanations.

Knockout teams: an event in which one team of four, five or six players – with four playing at a time – plays another team. The losers are eliminated or "knocked out," and the winners play other winners until only one winning team remains.

The length of a KO match may vary from a single session to a full day (the Vanderbilt and Spingold) to a multi-day event (the Bermuda Bowl).

Bracketed knockout teams: a KO in which teams are divided into groups – usually of 8, 16 or 32 teams – based on their masterpoint holdings. The top group – Bracket I – and all other groups compete in a separate event with their own set of winners.

Compact knockout teams: a shorter version of Bracketed KO teams.

Swiss teams: an event in which a team of four, five or six players – with four playing at a time – plays other teams in seven-, eight- or nine-board matches. Team A sits North-South at Table 1 and East-West at Table 2 while Team B sits East-West at Table 1 and North-South at Table 2. The results are compared and scored by International Match Points (IMPs).

Pairings for the first round are random. Pairings for succeeding rounds are determined by a team's win-loss record or victory point total.

International Match Points (IMPs): the most common method of scoring Swiss teams matches. Scoring example: if Team A scores plus 620 for bidding and making 4♠ on a particular deal and Team B scores only plus 170 (they didn't bid the game), the difference is 450 – which converts to 10 IMPs. The IMP chart is shown on the inside of your convention card.

Victory Points (VPs): a method of scoring Swiss teams matches. After the scores are compared and converted to IMPs, the IMP total is converted to victory points. A team's VP total may be used to determine its next opponents and its final standing.

Tournament Director Doug Grove, assistant director-in-charge at the NABC, said Smith was offered a chance to work in other games in Washington, but she declined. "She told me, 'These people are my passion,'" Grove says.

Smith was selected for the Johnson award – named for the late head of Club and Member Services – by her peers: other TDs.

Terri Lavender, another colleague, said, "It couldn't have happened to a nicer girl."

Smith, who owns and operates the Ruff 'n Sluff Bridge Club in Marietta, says she knew Johnson, who often interacted with club owners. "Jane was always very helpful," says Smith.

Don't be fooled by Smith's soft-spoken demeanor – she is passionate about bridge and she loves her newcomers. "I love bridge," she says. "There's no better game in the world."

Bruce Reeve knows a fine play when he sees one, and he is a good sport about reporting plays made against him. On this deal from a Friday afternoon pairs, game he encountered a young college player who shows a lot of promise (see page 1).

Reeve and his wife, Sue, were opposing Eric Mayefsky and Alexander Lovejoy, practicing for the upcoming college teams.

Sue led the ♥10, and Bruce cashed the top two hearts and gave his partner a ruff. She exited with the ♣Q to Mayefsky's singleton king. He played a spade to dummy's queen, cashed the ♣A and ruffed a club to hand, then ran the rest of his trumps.

In the three-card ending, declarer had the ♦A 9 7 opposite ♦K J 5. Mayefsky knew Bruce had five hearts, and he had followed to two spades and three clubs. Inferring that West's ♣10 was a true card, that gave him 2=5=3=3 shape, meaning he was a slight favorite to hold the ♦Q.

Backing his judgment, Mayefsky played a diamond to the king and followed with the jack, pinning East's doubleton 10 to bring home a tough contract.

(1) Explained as an unspecified major suit.

Contract: 3♠ by South.

Table result: 3♠ made six, N-S plus 230.

Director ruling: 3♠ making six, N-S plus 230

Committee ruling: 3♠ making six, N-S plus 230

The Facts: The director was called after the play was concluded. The E-W explanation was confirmed by what appeared on the convention card. West chose to bid 2♠ because he thought it was more likely to be partner's suit. South said that he thought 2♠ required an Alert as pass or correct. E-W believed that heart tolerance was implied by the free 2♠ bid and it was not pass or correct.

The Ruling: The director determined that there was no infraction or failure to Alert. Therefore, the table result of 3♠ by South making six, N-S plus 230, was allowed to stand.

The Appeal: N-S appealed. All four players attended the hearing. In response to a question by South (before South bid 3♠), North stated that East had explained after some thought that West must have heart tolerance.

East stated that he had explained West's bid as willing to play 2♠ or 3♥. East denied a significant pause before the explanation.

North responded to East's statement by indicating that such an explanation was, in effect, "pass or correct."

The committee determined that the 2♦ bid is a Mid-Chart convention and, as such, required a pre-Alert before the start of play. No pre-Alert was given.

The Decision: The committee determined that in spite of the failure to pre-Alert the 2♦ bid and the failure to Alert the 2♠ bid, the damage to N-S was self-inflicted. Per Law 21B3, E-W gained no advantage from the irregularities. Therefore, the committee allowed the table result of 3♠ by South making six, N-S plus 230, to stand for both sides.

The committee determined that the appeal had merit.

The Committee: Chris Moll (Chair), Abby Heitner and Jacob Morgan.

ACBL bans electronic devices in national events

The ACBL Board of Directors approved a comprehensive ban on electronic devices for all national level events, but not regional or Intermediate Newcomer contests:

Electronic devices, excluding health related equipment, capable of sending or receiving communication, including but not limited to, headphones, earphones, cellular phones and minicomputers: (1) shall not be allowed in the playing areas, adjacent hallways, restrooms or accessible break areas; and (2) shall not be used during a session.

These restrictions shall apply to all pairs, team members, captains, coaches, recorders and kibitzers and shall apply throughout any actual playing session or segment.

A violation of this policy shall result in a disciplinary penalty of one full board (or 12 IMPs at that form of scoring) for the first offense. A second offense shall result in disqualification from the event for the pair/team.

Kibitzers violating this policy shall be removed from the playing area for the remainder of the session.

Participants in the following contests will be reminded not to approach the playing area with a personal electronic device in their possession, even if the device is turned off: all flights of the Grand National Teams, the von Zedtwitz, Bruce and Young Life Master Pairs, the Spingold Knockout Teams, both Mini-Spingolds, the Wagar Women's Knockout Teams, the Truscott/USPC Senior Swiss Teams, the Wernher Open Pairs, the NABC+ Fast Pairs, the Mixed Board-a-Match Teams, the Open Swiss Teams and the National 199er Pairs.

A guide to successful partnerships

By Cathy Hunsberger

Bridge is a partnership game. This is the first tenet of bridge. It is the basis for all subsequent understandings, agreements and happy cohabitation at the bridge table.

Choosing a partner

What do you look for in a partner? Ideally, you want someone you can be in sync with, whose mind set is similar to yours. You want a partner you can communicate with, argue with, laugh with, and in the end, start over with.

How does your mind work? Do you like a bid to mean the same thing every time? Are you very literal? Very creative? Do you like to experiment? These are factors that should influence how you complete your convention card, how you choose your partners, how you approach the game, but these factors are often overlooked.

If you want a simple game, a light hobby, a straightforward convention card, you are not going to be happy with someone who takes the game very seriously, wants to try any and all conventions, and analyzes each deal to the nth degree. Know yourself and choose your partners wisely.

Choosing a system

Now you and your partner must choose and learn the language with which you are going to communicate. Go over your convention card. Ask questions.

What are the best conventions? They are the ones that suit you, your personality, your game, your approach to the game. They are the ones you and your partner agree on and discuss thoroughly.

It is amazing the different ways there are to play almost every convention. Don't just ask, "Do you play Gerber?" Once you agree to play Gerber, ask your partner, how do you play Gerber? Do you play straight Gerber, do you play it only over notrump, do you play 1430 mini-maxi Gerber, etc. Almost all partnership misunderstandings arise from lack of thorough discussion.

Remember, too, you are striving to create a unified system – one that works and flows together, that meshes. Check for duplications. Do you have two bids for the same hand type? Does the card seem more than you can handle right now? Too much too soon is a common source of misunderstandings and friction. You want partnership rapport, not necessarily every convention in the book!

Keeping a partner

One factor that should remain constant, however, is flexibility. That convention card is only a piece of paper. A system is not written in concrete. It can be amended, changed, modified. It can be screwed up in a ball and thrown away!

If a system or convention isn't working for you and your partner, change it, try something new, experiment. Ask an expert, read a book, take lessons.

If you are a serious student of the game, keep a log with all your bidding agreements. Upgrade it regularly. Go over it with your partner at least once a month. Constant memory enhancement helps reduce misunderstandings. Ask if you are both happy with this system. A happy partner is one of the keys to success.

Misunderstandings

And finally, when misunderstandings do occur – as they inevitably will – stay calm and cool. Ask yourself what you would want your partner to say to you if you had made that stupid bid! After all, you both have the same goal in mind. These misunderstandings can be good learning tools and engender illuminating discussions. A "bad" bid can lead to bigger and better things. You may even thank your partner for his or her mistake!!

End result

For want of a club

Roz Teukolsky found herself in 6♥ on this deal from the second qualifying session of the von Zedtwitz Life Master Open Pairs.

6NT is the best slam, but 6♥ on a trump lead was very awkward. Roz put in the ♥10, and when it was covered by the jack, she was in deep doodoo.

She recovered nicely, however. She played a heart to dummy's ace, entered hand with the ♦A and drew trumps, then cashed another high diamond. This was the ending:

North had made a fatal error by pitching a club. Now declarer could find the very stylish counter of cashing the ♦K and exiting with the ♣J. North won and was endplayed. Whichever black suit he returned gave declarer two extra tricks. Had North retained the ♣4, he could have won the club and exited with a low club to take trick 13 with his remaining club honor.

Final-board blues

By Barry Rigal

The last board of the session is often one where avoidable mistakes are made – how can you wait those extra 30 seconds to read the burners?

At our table, the opportunity for careless play arose. Let's see who took advantage of their opportunities.

After East's reasonable but ill-timed 1♥ overcall, we were warned against playing 3NT. As North, I knew that Eric Leong, my partner, might be using 3♠ as a try for 3NT, but I thought bidding the notrump game was against the odds.

Indeed, Leong had already assured himself a reasonable result simply by playing 5♣.

On the lead of the ♥2 (third and fifth), East won the jack and played a top heart. Leong ruffed, then guessed very well to play trumps from the top. West won the ♣Q – dummy pitching the ♥Q and East the ♥A – and exited with a heart.

Leong ruffed, advanced the ♦J and went up with the king, cashed the ♦A, noting the fall of the 9, then ran the ♦10, pitching a spade, and claimed 11 tricks when it held.

So who made the mistake?

East deserves some blame. The lead of the ♥2 should have alerted East to the fact that no more hearts were cashing. That being so, although a spade switch could pick up a vulnerable queen in partner's hand, declarer was surely marked with only four spades – so dummy's threatening diamond spots required a spade shift at trick two to dislodge that entry from dummy.

If East shifts to a spade, declarer will give up the spade entry at once, or West will dislodge it later.

Finally, might West have considered a devious shift to the ♠J at trick six? If declarer gets that right and works out how to play diamonds from there, good luck to him!

Eats, shoots & Leaves

Eats, Shoots & Leaves: The Zero Tolerance Approach to Punctuation is a non-fiction book written by Lynne Truss. In the book, published in 2003, Truss bemoans the state of punctuation in the United Kingdom and the United States, and describes how rules are being relaxed in today's society. Her goal is to remind readers of the importance of punctuation in the English language by mixing humor and instruction.

By Mark Horton

The title of the book is an amphibology—a verbal fallacy arising from an ambiguous grammatical construction—and derived from a joke on bad punctuation:

A panda walks into a café. He orders a sandwich, eats it, then draws a gun and proceeds to fire it at the other patrons.

“Why?” asks the confused, surviving waiter, as the panda makes towards the exit. The panda produces a badly punctuated wildlife manual and tosses it over his shoulder.

“Well, I’m a panda,” he says. “Look it up.”

The waiter turns to the relevant entry and, sure enough, finds an explanation:

“Panda. Large black-and-white bear-like mammal, native to China. Eats, shoots and leaves.”

You may be wondering why I have mentioned this, but I’ll come to that in a moment. With the Rabbi deciding that a trip from Santa Fe to Washington was a bridge tournament too far, I had to decide how to occupy my free time on Friday. Picking up a few stories from the first session of the Life Master Pairs was on the agenda (when the Spingold starts on Monday, I have plans for a series of articles entitled “The Rabbis of Summer,” although to some extent this depends on discovering an appropriately composed team).

Anyhow, I decided to watch a few deals involving the German superstars Sabine Auken and Daniela von Arnim – I assure you it had nothing to do with the fact that they were sitting North-South and are easy on the eye.

By now I expect you are ready for a few deals, so turning reluctantly to the play....

- (2) Three-card club support.

It’s not clear if East’s support double (a convention that in my opinion is a candidate for inclusion in 25 Conventions You Don’t Need to Know) might have made it possible for West to bid 3NT with slightly better clubs. As it was, East-West sold out to 3♠ and discovered that letting your opponents play in their optimum contract is not the way to generate a significant number of matchpoints. Declarer had to lose two trumps and two diamonds, plus 140.

On a spade lead, East will win and might switch to the queen or ten of diamonds, and if West leads a heart declarer will put in the jack and then try a low spade, but neither lead is obvious, and West selected the ♣J. With declarer having no sure entry to hand, she had to run the club suit. With seven discards to find from dummy she went for the maximum, parting with four hearts and three diamonds before running the ♠Q.

East won with the king and switched to the five of diamonds, but West had discarded two diamonds, and after he took the ♦A, declarer had the rest, plus 660 being more than useful.

With an awkward hand, East decided to start at a low level, but made a strength-showing bid at his next turn. When West (having rejected a raise to 2♣ on the first round) now came to life, East naturally went on to game. North gave some thought to bidding on (the winning action here) but she had just enough defense to persuade her otherwise. Minus 400 was a modest score for North-South.

At this juncture the point of my introduction may become clearer as I left the table to take a walk over to the Zoo with Ray Lee (CEO of Master Point Press). During the course of our visit, we checked out the Giant Pandas, who were actively engaged in munching their way through vast quantities of bamboo. By the time we got back to the hotel the session was coming to an end.

A glance at the convention card suggests that this was an awkward pattern for North to describe, and South chose a bad moment to take a view by passing a forcing bid. With 3NT making, North-South achieved one of their poorest results of the session.

You might make 5♣ on the North-South cards, but it’s not exactly a gimme. On a diamond lead, declarer has to win in hand and play a low heart. If the ♥Q takes the trick, declarer has to hazard the spade finesse.

With such a defensively orientated hand, I’m not sure East should have bid 3♥, and he paid a heavy price.

South led the ♠4. Declarer took North’s jack with the ace and played the ♣Q. North won with the ace and switched to her diamond. South won with the ace and returned the 9 for North to ruff. South ruffed the spade return and gave North another diamond ruff. A third spade was ruffed by declarer’s queen and overruffed by South, who cashed the ♣K for three down, plus 300 and a virtual top.

My featured pair posted around 60%, but I also picked up a couple of interesting stories over dinner.

I imagine most pairs bid these hands to 6♥ or 6NT. With nine top tricks, the only issue on the deal is how to tackle the heart suit. The best chance for four tricks is to start with the ♥K, intending to finesse the jack on the next round. When the 10 comes up, you play low from North and cover East’s card. Depending on the caliber of your opponents, you might decide to play West for ♥Q 10, but any Life Master worth their salt should be up to dropping the 10 from ♥10 x.

I leave you to draw your own conclusions about anyone who tackled this suit by starting with a low heart to the ace.

I’ll leave you with what was probably the wildest hand of the session:

It's a matter of individual taste as to how many clubs East should bid on the first round. Over the modest overcall South was stretching a long way with 3♣. I wonder if South would have found the heart lead that is necessary to defeat 5♣? (So perhaps North should have bid 3♥ on the way to 4♠?) When North led the ♣10, declarer made an overtrick.

I'm off for a Bamboo on Rye.

Life Master news

Only two masterpoints shy of making Life Master, Catherine Hess of Honolulu tried to buy an entry in the Young 0-1500 Life Master Pairs. She was turned down for the obvious reason, so she and her partner, Peter Galbraith, also of Honolulu, entered a side game on Friday. When the session was over, Hess had 2.24 masterpoints – and her gold card.

Walter Mitnick of Owings Mills MD is now a Bronze Life Master, having gone over 500 masterpoints in a knockout teams. His partner was David Ruppert of Towson MD. Their teammates were Michael Ford of Severna Park MD and David Sterner of Odenton MD.

Joan White of Fairfax VA is a new Life Master after earning 3.46 gold points in the Saturday-Sunday Knockout Teams. She was playing with Jacqueline Newman of Stroudsburg PA. Their teammates were Robert Poriss of South Ogden UT and Luigi Calicchia of Farmington UT.

NABC Insider 3

The Insider is happy to report Bob L has been returned safely. If you noticed the Secret Service around the hotel yesterday, rest assured your tax dollars are being well spent. In addition to providing protection for visiting dignitaries, they were able to foil the villain's plans and keep the ransom money from falling into the bad guy's hands. Bob is none the worse for the wear. He stopped by the Mega-Housing booth and made his air and hotel reservations for San Diego. Watch the ACBL website for his travel blog and pictures from his travel to the Fall NABC.

If you were trying to get to your room or anywhere in the Wardman Tower around 6:00 yesterday, you may have caught a glimpse of the Supreme C's entourage as he returned from dinner. Four limos, six armored SUVs, nine passenger vans, a police escort and sixteen undercover agents at the pub entrance seems a bit extravagant to the Insider, but then the Insider has had to take a bus to two of the last three NABCs. The same thing will be happening several times over the next few days as the Supreme C goes out on several tours of the city, the Insider and the Marriott staff apologize for any inconvenience.

The deadline for pre-registration for the Wagar and the three variations of the Spingold must be completed by 8:00 tonight. The directors have stated that NO exceptions will be granted – no matter how creative the excuse.

Speaking of creative, the Insider is still waiting for suggestions for re-naming the hill up from restaurant row. Become a part of Insider lore by submitting your entry to the Ask Me Girl by 8:00 tomorrow night.

Cell phones, audible pagers or any similar communication equipment may not be operated or operable in the playing area during a session of play at NABCs except for health-related equipment or by permission of the director-in-charge of the tournament or event.

For NABC+ events, no electronic devices may be taken into the playing area. More information on the policy regarding NABC+ events is on page 4.

When making an announcement, use the announcement word — such as "transfer" — and tap the Alert strip at the same time.

A player who Alerts or announces a bid should make sure his opponents are aware that an Alert or announcement has been made.

Today is Canada Day

Canada, the northernmost country in the ACBL, has a long and distinguished bridge history filled with the names of great players. With more than 17,000 ACBL members (out of 160,000 league-wide), Canada has some of the most active and loyal players at the club and tournament level.

There are four ACBL districts in Canada: District 1 (Quebec and the Maritime provinces), District 2 (Ontario and southern Manitoba), District 18 (Alberta, Saskatchewan, and northern Alberta) and District 19 (British Columbia).

Toronto, Ontario is a regular hive of bridge activities, and the city has been the host of some of the most successful NABCs in history. The 1986 Summer NABC in Toronto, for example, attracted more than 21,000 tables of play, making it the second-largest NABC ever. Other Canadian cities to serve as NABC hosts include Vancouver, Winnipeg and Montreal.

Canada offers a slate of terrific regional events each year, including Penticton on beautiful Lake Okanagan in British Columbia. Penticton regularly attracts more than 3000 tables each year, making it the regional largest tournament in Canada — the Gatlinburg of the North.

Bridge greats such as Eric Murray, Sami Kehela, Percy Sheardown, Doug Drury, (originally from Canada), Peter Pender (ditto), Agnes Gordon, Eric Kokish and George Mittelman are familiar names to all students of the game. New talent, however, testifies to Canada's place in the world of bridge: Nicholas L'Ecuyer, Gavin Wolpert, Vince Demuy, Daniel Korbel and David Grainger are all stars of the game.

Don't miss the next NABC in Canada: Toronto, Summer 2011.

Monitoring

At this and future North American Championships, ACBL will be monitoring NABC+ events with visible, real-time cameras. The images will be recorded and will be available for later official inspection and review.

By general monitoring of the session and participants' behavior, ACBL has another source of information that may be useful in determining facts and settling issues arising from some types of ethical and behavioral complaints or actions. Please summon a director if a problem occurs at the table.

This procedure is intended to assure everyone that the playing field is level and that misbehavior will not be tolerated.

The mighty 3 of trumps

On this deal from the second qualifying session of the von Zedtwitz Life Master Pairs, Canadians Daniel Korbel and Jonathan Steinberg defended 4♠ on this layout in which declarer's line of play made the spot cards in the trump suit very important late in the deal:

♠ K 4 2
♥ J 6 3
♦ 8 7 5 4 2
♣ Q 6

♠ J 7 6
♦ K Q J 9 6
♣ 9 8 7 2

♥ Q 10 8 5
♦ A 10 3
♣ A 10 5 4

♠ A Q 10 9 8
♥ A K 9 7 2

♣ K J 3

The auction to 4♠ was uncontested. Korbel, West, led the ♦K. Declarer ruffed and played a low club to the queen and ace. Steinberg, East, continued with the ♦A, declarer again ruffing. Two more rounds of clubs allowed declarer to shed a heart from dummy, but when declarer played the ♥A K, East ruffed the king and played a third diamond. Declarer ruffed yet again and played a heart toward dummy.

Korbel ruffed with the 7, overruffed by dummy's king. This was the position:

♠ J
♦ J 9

♥ Q
♣ 10

♠ A Q

Declarer can succeed at this stage by playing a trump to the closed hand, extracting West's last trump, and ruffing a heart in the dummy, but declarer ruffed another diamond in his hand (East pitching a club) and tried to ruff a heart in dummy. West, however, ruffed high in front of the dummy and played yet another diamond. Declarer tried ruffing with dummy's 4, but East overruffed with the 5, and took the last trick with the ♠3, smothering dummy's ♠2!

Convention card reminder

Each player is required to have a convention card filled out legibly and on the table throughout a session. Both cards of a partnership must be identical and include the first and last names of each member of the partnership.

If a director determines that neither player has a substantially completed card, the partnership may play only the ACBL Yellow Card and may use only standard carding. This restriction may be lifted only at the beginning of a subsequent round after convention cards have been properly prepared and approved by the director. Further, the partnership will receive a 1/6 board matchpoint penalty for each board played, commencing with the next round and continuing until the restriction is lifted. In IMP team games, penalties shall be at the discretion of the director.

If the director determines the partnership has at least one substantially completed convention card but has not fully complied with ACBL regulations, the director may give warnings or assign such penalties as he deems to be appropriate under the circumstances.

The objective of these warnings and penalties is the encouragement of full compliance with ACBL regulations.

ROSEMARY O'LEARY
SATURDAY-SUNDAY SIDE GAME SERIES

By Marjorie Gazzola

Rosemary O'Leary, my Wednesday bridge partner and friend, died suddenly in February 2006 at the age of 80. She was a lifelong bridge player and a Silver Life Master who played all over the world while traveling with her Army officer husband, Joe. Years ago, Rosemary, with her partner Liz Hezlep, ran tournaments where their children caddied. Many of her friends knew Rosemary by her nickname, Didgy. Rosemary became my partner when I was a novice, and we had great fun playing together for eight years. In addition to her enthusiasm for the game, Rosemary will be remembered for her sly sense of humor, her immaculate attire and her vast collection of gigantic earrings. Rosemary was very proud of her large and loving family, including her husband Joe, their four children, 10 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

WASHINGTON BRIDGE LEAGUE
SATURDAY-SUNDAY BRACKETED KO

Thanks so much to the Washington Bridge League (Unit 147) for supporting the Summer 2009 NABC.

TODDY GOSS AND KAY MEEKS
STRATIFIED OPEN PAIRS

Today's two-session regional pairs event is in honor of Kay Meeks and Toddy Goss, who taught their daughters (NABC Tournament Chair Margot Hennings and NABC Charity Chair Joan Lewis) to volunteer. Kay was always the first person people called when someone was sick or a family needed an extra helping hand. She headed many church and civic committees to help ensure the spirit of volunteerism was kept alive wherever she could. Now 91, Kay no longer plays weekly social bridge with her friends, but credits the game we love for helping keep her mind sharp for all these years. At age 95, Toddy is still sharp as a tack and her volunteerism is going strong: She continues to volunteer at her local hospital as a substitute. She also plays bridge with a group of "younger" friends (they're only in their eighties) in Kittery ME. Kay and Toddy have met several times at their daughters' homes in Washington over dinner during the Christmas holidays — good food and friends being a special combination their daughters also learned well from their mothers.

PIEDMONT VA SUNDAY-MONDAY
BRACKETED KO

Thanks so much to the Virginia Piedmont (Unit 139) for supporting the Summer 2009 NABC.
